YEAR'S BUSINESS WOUND UP BY THE OLD CITY COUNCIL

New Body Organized and New City Officials Installed in Office.

MAYOR SENDS A MESSAGE

In Which the Municipal Stone Pile Idea Is Strongly Set Forth.

THE FINANCES OF THE CITY

Reported Upon By the Treasurer—Solicitor's Salary Raised—Report of Carnegie Library—Proposed Legislation of Importance.

The last meeting of the old and the first meeting of the new council was held last evening at city hall and was the signal for a large turnout of spectators. All the seats in the rear of the council chamber were filled with representative citizens, who enjoyed the proceedings of the even- ing.

Before the old council was called to order by President O. D. Nice the new council held a short caucus on matters that were to come up at the meeting and the members did their work well. Everything went smoothly, as far as appointments were concerned.

There was not much business done by the old council, the work in the main being left for the new council to look after.

It was the desire of some of the councilmen to place the ordinance to regulate the salaries of the city commissioner on its third and final reading, but the motion to suspend the rules was lost by a vote of 7 to 3.

Once more the matter of paying the election officers of the last general election an additional amount for the holding of extra elections was brought up, and at the suggestion of Mr. Bullock council decided that the officers should receive from the city not more than $1.50 each for their work. It was stated that the board of education was willing to pay the balance, or an additional $1.50, to each officer, which would make the officers receive $3 more for their day's work. The money was ordered paid.

REPORT MADE BY CITY TREASURER

Considerable interest was shown in the report of the city treasurer, which in part was as follows:

In treasury March 18, 1901, $125,971.06; overdrawn, $102,710.57; received during the year, $351,033.26; total, $476,904.32; paid out during the year, $348,243.38; balance on hand, $19,650.32; overdrawn, $79,967.21.

The report was accepted.

Clerk Hanley then read the report of the election result and stated that certificates of election had been forwarded to all those receiving the highest number of votes.

Engineer Charles Kelly, alert to the demands for the betterment of the city, told the council that improvements should be made on Bradshaw avenue, Pennsylvania avenue and Trentvale street at once. In some parts of the outskirts of the city there are number of old coal and clay banks, and from these there is considerable water flowing on the streets. This surface water has proved to be a detriment to pedestrians and some means should be provided whereby the inconvenience should be done away with.

Another important matter that Mr. Kelly called the attention of council to was that of placing street signs at all corners. It was one of the best suggestions made during the entire session of the old council and received the approval of all. It is now up to the new council to make such a needed improvement.

The report of Wharfmaster William McClure showed that the receipts during the past year had been $100 and the expenditures had been half that amount. The balance had been retained as compensation for the work of Mr. McClure.

CARNEGIE LIBRARY
DIRECTORS' REPORT

The report of the Carnegie library directors was presented by Messrs. Peach and Travis and it was received. The report follows:

Received from Andrew Carnegie, $50,000; paid out on contracts for building, $34,784.47; paid for furniture, $991.20; insurance, $120; tax on real estate, $158.60; architect, $2,500; salaries librarian and janitor, $190.38; for stone work, walks, grading of grounds, alleys, etc., $2,016.32; electrical fixtures and wiring, $1,499.04; miscellaneous expenses, $369.31; total expenses, $42,629.32, balance in hands of treasurer, $7,370.68. Number of books on hand, 2,600; number purchased and not delivered, 400; number books donated, 108; total, 3,108.

There was some discussion over the introduction of an ordinance to improve Calcutta road from Wall street to the cemetery. One member said that he did not think the ordinance was proper and that in his opinion the intent of the law had not been carried out. This member stated that the commissioners who viewed the property along this street had not done their work in a manner that seemed proper to him, as the property had not been assessed with a view to how much it would be benefited by the improvement, but with a view of raising just so much money.

Several councilmen wanted to talk about the matter, but as the motion to suspend the rules had been lost, President Nice stated that he did not want to hear any remarks on the matter. The incident was then considered closed.

LIBRARY OPENING

ARRANGEMENTS PROGRESSING FOR THE DEDICATION.

Program Will Be Completed in a Few Days—Closing Up Old Library.

Arrangements for the formal opening of the Carnegie library on May 1 are progressing rapidly and it is expected that a very interesting program will be prepared within a few days.

Prof. W. L. Thompson, G. Y. Travis and A. V. Gilbert have the matter in hand, and a number of noted speakers, both local and out-of-town, will be present on the occasion of the opening.

The program was to have contained the name of National Secretary T. J. Duffy, of the Brotherhood, but that gentleman will be compelled to go to Trenton on the date of the opening in order to be on the ground before the convention of the organization. The action of Mr. Duffy in declining is very much regretted by the board, and the committee is now engaged in a search for a substitute.

It has been arranged that all books now out shall be returned to the librarian of the public institution today, and none will be permitted to go out after that time. This move is made in order that the library can close up its business preparatory to turning over its possessions to the Carnegie board.

ACQUIRING REAL ESTATE

The Pennsylvania Company Negotiating for More Land Near Its Present Tracks.

It is expected that before another fortnight passes the Pennsylvania Railroad company will own considerably more property in and about this city than at present. It has been stated, and from a source that is considered most reliable, that overtures have been made by the railroad company to secure control of the property at the corner of Union street and Pink alley, now occupied by the Armour company, and that this transfer might be closed this week. While it has been known that the railroad company was after this parcel of land, matters have been resting for a few weeks, and now it is stated that a representative of the Armour company from Chicago is expected in the city this week, when the deal is to be finally closed.

The railroad company has also been after the Stewart property across the street from the Armour property, but there is no deal on at present for the transfer of this land. Mr. Stewart has advised the company that he would be willing to dispose of his

WILL NEVER COME BACK

ALL PLANTS IN THE WEST

He Is Now Located in a West Virginia Town And Does Not Fear Arrest—Evidently Wants His Wife to Join Him.

A relative of former Police Officer Thomas Stafford is in receipt of a letter from the runaway. He is now located in Orchard Grove, W. Va. The letter contains the statement that the officer does not fear arrest, as he is located in a town that is easy to escape from, being on the border of another state. He says he will never live in East Liverpool again.

His relatives take from this assertion that he means to send for his wife and child, though the girl in whose company he left is still missing. It is not likely Mrs. Stafford would be willing to go to her husband, as from all reports he was not the most amiable creature when about home.

Nothing was said as to his intentions with reference to the support of his family, and it may be the authorities will have to be interested in the case before he can be induced to contribute to their keeping.

THE FIRST BALL GAME

Line-up of the Winter A. C. And East Liverpool for Tomorrow.

The base ball season will be opened in this city tomorrow afternoon with a game between the Winter Athletic club, of Pittsburg, and the home team. The fans predict that the game will be full of life and that an exhibition of expert playing will be witnessed. The line-up will be as follows:

East Liverpool—Emerling, catcher; Winters or Chambers, pitcher; Ferguson, short; F. Heckathorn, first; J. Heckathorn, second; Davis, third; Webb, left; Chadwick, center; Bennett, right.

Winter A. C.—Wilson, catcher; Jones, pitcher; Haskins, short; Cross, first; Osborne, second; Graham, third; Reynolds, left; Boyle, center; Bentel, right.

The game will be played in West End park, and will be called at 4 o'clock.

WRECK ON THE C. & P.

Bad Smash of Freight Cars at Macedonia Delayed Traffic.

A wreck on the C. & P. railroad at Macedonia last evening at 6:25 o'clock resulted in the destruction of an engine and eight cars and the delaying of passenger traffic for several hours. The wreck was the result of brakes failing to work, and besides playing havoc with the cars and engine tore up the track for several hundred feet.

A large force of men accompanied the wreck train from Wellsville to Macedonia this morning, and it is thought the debris will be cleared away by tonight.

POTTERY COMBINE HAS A CHANCE

Many Manufacturers Have Conferred With the Chicago Promoters.

ALL PLANTS IN THE WEST

Are to Be Included in the Deal, If One Is Effected—Basis, One-Third Cash And Two-Thirds Stock—General Pottery News.

The announcement in this paper last evening of the meeting of a number of local manufacturers who were looking forward to the formation of a pottery consolidation was not unexpected for by those close in touch with the pottery industry. It has been some years since a manufacturer has stated that the scheme had favorable chances of taking root, and this was said in terms that could not be mistaken, and the meaning is quite far-reaching. Monday morning H. I. Irwin, a prominent attorney, and James G. Trainer, a real estate dealer and broker, both of Chicago, arrived in this city in company with George E. Sebring and registered at a local hotel. The day was spent by these gentlemen in calling upon the local manufacturers, and as late as five o'clock, the telephone wires were kept warm notifying manufacturers of the meeting which was to be held Monday evening, and the call was responded to by about 10 manufacturers, representing the Sevres, Sebring Brothers, Dresden, Cartwrights, Burfords, Smith & Phillips and Standard plants.

These manufacturers were met by the gentlemen from Chicago, who then unfolded the proposition to consolidate all the potteries west of the Allegheny mountains. It can be seen by this that all the Eastern manufacturers are to be left to themselves. The monetary consideration seemed to meet with favor among the manufacturers. It consists in the western gentlemen paying one-third the value of the potteries to the owners, and they in turn are to take the balance, or two-thirds in common stock. During the meeting Mr. Irwin is credited with saying that his proposition was upon an honorable basis, and that he was in position to carry out every word he said. Of course the real details were not considered at this meeting, but as all the manufacturers present seemed to look with favor on the proposition, it is reasonable to presume that the matter will be inquired into further, and at no distant date. That some sort of a consolidation will be formulated in this city during the next few months there is little doubt, according to interviews with several prominent pottery manufacturers this morning.

The recent hitch in the formation of the American Potteries Company is described in an Eastern paper as follows: "The New York bankers who will cover the plants with mortgages have given until June 1 for those seeking admission to clear their plants, and T. W. Tapscott has been given until next January to line up 75 per cent. of the kiln capacity of the leading plants. If he fails in the attempt then other efforts will no doubt be made.

"It is thought by some of those particularly interested in the combine, that 75 per cent. would make too big an affair, and that it will really cost too much to get up such a big company. A smaller one would be just as effective and it could be gotten together much quicker and at much less cost.

"It is given out that the reason why the progress of the combine has been so slow is that there are many small details from a legal standpoint which must be attended to before the proper efforts at enlarging begin.

All the Criminal Cases Assigned Will Be Heard the Coming Week.

MORE JURORS ARE DRAWN

An East Liverpool Wife Seeks Divorce, Charging Husband With Desertion.

SUITS FOR DAMAGES ENTERED

Pennsylvania Company And Buckeye Engine Company Defendants in Actions Brought Because of Personal Injuries.

Lisbon, April 22.—(Special)—Deputy Lawrence Allison went to East Liverpool today, intending to remain there this week. His trial is set for next Tuesday. All the criminal cases assigned will be heard next week.

To complete the petit jury for the April term, to fill places of those excused, the following names have been drawn: Thomas M. Pickall, Wm. T. Lewis, East Liverpool; W. F. Heckles, Salem; J. T. Rudibaugh, Millrock; Edward Close, East Palestine; Harvey Britton, Lisbon; Simon Summers, John Lease, Salem; S. S. Groner, Leetonia; John S. Scott, East Liverpool. These jury men are to report for duty April 28.

In the case of Ohio against Guy Boston, of Salem, on relation of Daisy Somers, of Sebring, the defendant failed to appear yesterday. The jury was impaneled and returned a verdict declaring Boston guilty as charged. The defendant was ordered by the court to pay to the mother of his child $350. His whereabouts are unknown and it is thought he will probably serve three months in jail rather than pay.

Lulu B. Smith, who was married to Nathaniel T. Smith in East Liverpool in 1895, has sued for divorce. She alleges that her husband has been wilfully absent over three years and has wholly disregarded his marital duties. She asks also the custody of their boy, born in October, 1895.

The divorce suit of Joseph W. House, of Wayne township, against Sarah J. House, which has been on file for some time, has been dismissed at the plaintiff's cost.

James B. Swearingen has filed an action against the Pennsylvania company and Dr. Angus Noble, in which he asks $1,900 damages. He says that while in the employ of the railroad at Wellsville his left arm was badly lacerated and wrenched. The company had Dr. Noble take care of him and the arm is now stiff and virtually useless in his labor.

Geo. W. Haines has sued the Buckeye Engine company, of Salem, for $3,000, alleging that the company should be held responsible for injuries he received while in its employ. While inexperienced, he says he was put to work on a steel drill which was without the usual and necessary shield. In oiling the drill he lost four fingers of his right hand.

NEW BANK BUILDING

Watson Corner to Undergo Renovation for Dollar Savings Bank.

The Watson building, Sixth and Broadway, which has been leased by the new Dollar Savings bank, will undergo extensive renovation and improvements before it is opened as a bank. The bank gets possession May 22, and the improvements will start immediately afterward.

The stockholders are expected to meet about May 10 for the purpose of organizing and choosing directors. The bank will probably be open for business some time in June.

Paid And Was Set Free. Dell Simmons Williams, who made a vicious attack upon Lillian Teford Monday, was released from the city jail last evening, her sister having procured the necessary $8. Miss Dell has threatened to make things warm for Lillian on sight.

CLERKS' BANQUET

Arranged for at the Meeting of Union No. 133 Last Evening.

Retail Clerks' union No. 133, at its meeting last night, initiated nine new members, and made arrangements for the joint banquet to be held next week.

Delegates to Trades Council were elected as follows: Frank Wagner, William Bloor, J. E. Anderson.

LONG RUN CENTENNIAL

Delegate Appointed to Attend the Church Celebration—Dr. George
Dismissed to Allegheny Presbytery—Concluding Proceedings.

After the noon recess yesterday the Steubenville presbytery reconvened in the First Presbyterian church with prayer by the moderator, Rev. Edwin Hodil. Upon his request, Rev. S. C. George was given a letter of dismissal to the presbytery of Allegheny, as was Rev. W. W. Norton to the presbytery of St. Clairsville.

The committee on education made a report regarding R. C. Young, a student. The report was accepted. Bert H. Conley was examined as a student for the ministry and proved himself satisfactory and his name was ordered enrolled as a candidate. He was also recommended to the board of education for aid. For the expenses of the delegates to the general assembly, which convenes in New York city next month, $487.80 was ordered drawn from the treasury.

The examination of Licentiate L. J. Wallace was taken up and approved. Mr. Wallace will be ordained and installed in the Madison church on May 22. Rev. D. R. Breed accepted an invitation to preach the ordination sermon. Owing to the withdrawal of Rev. J. A. Platts as president of the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor union, Rev. T. C. Weir was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Rev. A. M. Reid was appointed a delegate to attend the centennial at Long's Run and the stated clerk was ordered to send a report of the centennial meeting to the general assembly. The Still Fork church extended the presbytery an invitation to hold the fall meeting in that church. The invitation was readily accepted.

The evening session was opened with a report of the temperance committee by Rev. C. L. V. McKee. The report with resolutions was accepted. The reports of the auditing committee and the committee on home missions were also accepted. The latter report showed that Pleasant Hill church had been the most progressive and East Liverpool at the end of the list. Rev. C. G. Jordan was called upon for an explanation in regard to the matter and stated that the church was guilty, but for very good reasons.

"During the past year," said Rev.

MEDICAL MEN'S PROGRAM

The East Ohio Medical Association Meets Here Tomorrow.

The spring meeting of the East Ohio Medical Association will be held in this city tomorrow. The program is as follows: Address by the president, A. B. Holland, M. D., Wellsville; topic, "Co-operation;" series of abdominal sections, A. A. Elliott, M. D.; "Some New Remedies," J. M. Watt, M. D.; clinic.

Mr. Jordan, "the church has given over $2,000 to other missions and could not give to home missions as abundantly as it wished. We will, however, come to the front this year by giving our full assessment."

The women's society of home missions also reported and the report was accepted. At the conclusion of these reports the business of the presbytery was practically at an end and the moderator recommended that the evening services be commenced.

The familiar hymn, "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus," was engaged in heartily by the congregation, after which the choir, led by Prof. H. F. McLaughlin, sang a beautiful anthem entitled, "Hark, Hear the Voices." Miss Margaret Baxter sang a solo in connection with the anthem and was commended highly. Dr. John Henry Barrows, president of Oberlin college, was then introduced by Rev. C. G. Jordan and in a manner overflowing with eloquence Dr. Barrows delivered a masterly address on the subject "The World As Seen By a World Traveller."

Although the eminent lecturer and preacher made his address rather short he impressed the audience forcibly and his remarks were enjoyed received. Having been for years a traveler in the orient Dr. Barrows was well qualified to make his subject interesting.

He dwelt chiefly on China and other Asiatic countries. He told of the schools and colleges of China and the experience of Christian evangelists among the so-called heathen. "Evangelism in the orient," said Dr. Barrows, "has a very promising outlook. In few years the inhabitants of China and Japan will be as Christianized as the people of the United States."

Dr. Barrows ended his most complete description of the orient by paying high tribute to the Presbyterians now at work in the heathen fields.

A soprano solo sung most beautifully by Miss Margaret Harrison followed by the benediction brought the services to a close.

The unfinished business was immediately taken up, and after hearing several reports and deciding to meet in Madison church in May a resolution was read and unanimously adopted, thanking the people of East Liverpool and the First church for its entertainment and hospitality and thanking Dr. Barrows for his masterly address.

PRESBYTERY ENDS A BUSY SESSION

Various Committees Report and
Dr. Barrows Delivers a
Fine Lecture.

LONG RUN CENTENNIAL

Delegate Appointed to Attend the Church Celebration—Dr. George
Dismissed to Allegheny Presbytery—Concluding Proceedings.

After the noon recess yesterday the Steubenville presbytery reconvened in the First Presbyterian church with prayer by the moderator, Rev. Edwin Hodil. Upon his request, Rev. S. C. George was given a letter of dismissal to the presbytery of Allegheny, as was Rev. W. W. Norton to the presbytery of St. Clairsville.

The committee on education made a report regarding R. C. Young, a student. The report was accepted. Bert H. Conley was examined as a student for the ministry and proved himself satisfactory and his name was ordered enrolled as a candidate. He was also recommended to the board of education for aid. For the expenses of the delegates to the general assembly, which convenes in New York city next month, $487.80 was ordered drawn from the treasury.

The examination of Licentiate L. J. Wallace was taken up and approved. Mr. Wallace will be ordained and installed in the Madison church on May 22. Rev. D. R. Breed accepted an invitation to preach the ordination sermon. Owing to the withdrawal of Rev. J. A. Platts as president of the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor union, Rev. T. C. Weir was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Rev. A. M. Reid was appointed a delegate to attend the centennial at Long's Run and the stated clerk was ordered to send a report of the centennial meeting to the general assembly. The Still Fork church extended the presbytery an invitation to hold the fall meeting in that church. The invitation was readily accepted.

The evening session was opened with a report of the temperance committee by Rev. C. L. V. McKee. The report with resolutions was accepted. The reports of the auditing committee and the committee on home missions were also accepted. The latter report showed that Pleasant Hill church had been the most progressive and East Liverpool at the end of the list. Rev. C. G. Jordan was called upon for an explanation in regard to the matter and stated that the church was guilty, but for very good reasons.

"During the past year," said Rev.

Mr. Jordan, "the church has given over $2,000 to other missions and could not give to home missions as abundantly as it wished. We will, however, come to the front this year by giving our full assessment."

The women's society of home missions also reported and the report was accepted. At the conclusion of these reports the business of the presbytery was practically at an end and the moderator recommended that the evening services be commenced.

EAST END UNIFORM DAY'S WORK

Much Desired by the Employees of the East Liverpool Railway Company.

The East End is the mecca for street railway men of the city, and this morning they were feeling rather good over the proposition of the Pittsburgh Railways company for an increase in the wages of its employees. The men some time ago asked the company for an increase, and the proposition was entertained. It is stated the men will receive more than they asked.

The men employed on the East Liverpool street railway hope the company will make a uniform day's work, as the men claim under the present arrangement of runs it is a hard matter for a majority of the employees to make $2 a day, the best runs being but 10 hours and 24 minutes. There are some runs making but eight and nine hours, and men who are being paid but 18 cents an hour say they can hardly make out on this sort of runs. Runs of this kind net the motorman or conductor about $1.60 per day.

NEW POLICE OFFICER

Appointment of Jay Fisher For the East End Received With Satisfaction.

The appointment of Jay Fisher to a position on the police force, to be located in the East End, has met with the entire satisfaction of a large number of residents of that section. Mr. Fisher has resided in the East End many years, and has always been a hard worker for the betterment of the condition of that part of the city.

Taken Off the Extension.

It was announced this morning that all workmen had been taken off the extension of the East Liverpool railway to the state line, and that these men are now working on the main line, making much needed improvements. Superintendent Reed could not announce when the work on the extension would commence.

Every Woman Should Write Dr. S. B. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium.

Mrs. C. L. Byron.

Mrs. C. L. Byron, of 546 Lincoln avenue, Chicago, Ill., is President of the Chicago German Woman's Club. She has the following to say of Peruna, the great catarrh remedy, which relieved her of a serious case of catarrh of the bladder:

Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.: Gentlemen--"I was cured of a very severe case of bladder trouble which the doctors did not know how to reach. I had severe headache and dragging pains with it, but before the second bottle was used I felt much relieved, and after having used the fifth bottle life looked different to me. This was nearly a year ago, and I have had no recurrence of the trouble. I cannot praise Peruna too highly."—MRS. C. L. BYRON.

SCHOOL TOPICS

Miss Naomi Shontz is absent from her school duties because of illness.

Miss Elizabeth Stevenson was absent from school Monday by reason of illness.

Miss Mary Jackman is detained from her duties in the Central school by illness.

The many friends of Miss Pearl Finley, of the East End, will be pleased to know that she is slightly improved.

Miss Margaret McConnell, a teacher in the Sixth street school, was called to her home in Irondale by the illness of her mother.

Dr. John H. Barrows, president of Oberlin College, addressed the teachers' meeting yesterday afternoon at the Central school building. He took as his subject, "Samuel Adams and His Message to the Nineteenth Century."

The subject of organizing an alumni association among the graduates of the East Liverpool high school has long been under consideration and a number of the members of the class of 1901, during the past winter, have been thinking seriously of taking the initiative in the matter. But whether it be as a result of any step taken by that class or not could not be learned. At any rate, Supt. Rayman has announced that there will be a meeting of all the graduates of the high school at 7 o'clock this evening, in the high school room. The meeting is called for the purpose of considering the organization of an alumni association. All graduates are requested to be present.

REEVES IS RELEASED.

Gov. Gen. Wood Issued an Order Pardoning Cuban Postal Embezzler.

BECAUSE HE TURNED INFORMER

During the Trial, It Was Denied There Was Any Agreement With Him—Hanna to Take Steps to Prove Innocence of Rathbone.

Havana, April 23.—Governor General Wood issued an order yesterday pardoning W. H. Reeves, who was recently sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $35,516 for complicity in the Cuban postal frauds. Reeves was liberated at once.

General Wood says he pardoned Reeves because he was a witness for the state. The order pardoning him did not come as a surprise, for it has been generally understood, ever since Estes G. Rathbone was first accused of connection with the postal frauds, that Reeves had been promised immunity by the military government. This had been denied, as well as the fact that the government had been using Reeves as a witness for the state.

The matter was referred to by counsel for Rathbone in summing up their client's case. Rathbone's lawyers declared that this promise of immunity had influenced Reeves to make statements against Rathbone.

Washington, April 23.—Senator Hanna says he will take steps to show the world that E. G. Rathbone is an innocent man. He says he has documentary evidence to prove that the military governor swayed the court that convicted the director general of posts. James R. Campbell, ex-governor of Ohio, a cousin of Rathbone's, will probably be the counsel in chief who will fight to re-establish Rathbone's good name.

The conviction of Rathbone was secured mainly on the testimony of Reeves, a perjured witness," said a man close to the senator. "Senator Hanna has a great mass of papers bearing on the case, and as soon as possible he will go over them with an attorney and sift out the important from the unimportant in order to have something to work with before the courts. Rathbone will remain in Havana, of course, as his bail will not allow him to leave the island. The senator's duties will not permit him to be present at the trial of the proceedings when they are heard, but he will employ the best legal talent obtainable and will stand by Rathbone until the bitter end."

"Now good digestion waits on appetite, and health on both. If it doesn't, try Burdock Blood Bitters.

Winter in Colorado And Utah.
The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states. Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems.

Mrs. C. L. Byron, of 54 Lincoln avenue, Chicago, Ill., is President of the Chicago German Woman's Club. She has the following to say of Peruna, the great catarrh remedy, which relieved her of a serious case of catarrh of the bladder:

Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.:
Gentlemen—"I was cured of a very severe case of bladder trouble which the doctors did not know how to reach. I had severe headache and dragging pains with it, but before the second bottle was used I felt much relieved, and after having used the fifth bottle life looked different to me. This was nearly a year ago, and I have had no recurrence of the trouble. I cannot praise Peruna too highly."—MRS. C. L. BYRON.

SCHOOL TOPICS

Miss Naomi Shontz is absent from her school duties because of illness.
Miss Elizabeth Stevenson was absent from school Monday by reason of illness.

Miss Mary Jackman is detained from her duties in the Central school by illness.

The many friends of Miss Pearl Finley, of the East End, will be pleased to know that she is slightly improved.

Miss Margaret McConnell, a teacher in the Sixth street school, was called to her home in Irondale by the illness of her mother.

Dr. John H. Barrows, president of Oberlin College, addressed the teachers' meeting yesterday afternoon at the Central school building. He took as his subject, "Samuel Adams and His Message to the Nineteenth Century."

The subject of organizing an alumni association among the graduates of the East Liverpool high school has long been under consideration and a number of the members of the class of 1901, during the past winter, have been thinking seriously of taking the initiative in the matter. But whether it be as a result of any step taken by that class or not could not be learned. At any rate, Supt. Rayman has announced that there will be a meeting of all the graduates of the high school at 7 o'clock this evening, in the high school room. The meeting is called for the purpose of considering the organization of an alumni association. All graduates are requested to be present.

NOTICE TO REPUBLICANS

Notice is hereby given to the Republican electors of the Eighteenth Congressional District of Ohio that a delegate convention to place in nomination a candidate for Representative in Congress will be held at

at 11 o'clock a.m. delegates will be elected in the several counties composing this district on the basis of the Republican vote cast for President in 1890, viz.: 1 delegate for each 100 votes and fraction thereof in excess of 50. This apportionment is as follows.

Columbian..... 103 delegates.
Mahoning..... 59
Stark..... 52 "

By order of Congressional Committee.
J. P. FAWCETT,
C. B. WICK,
Committee.
ED. A. KING,

The new council has entered upon its duties and the city is looking to it for an energetic and business-like policy. The same care, thoughtfulness and diligence that a man exercises in his own business should be exercised in looking after the city's affairs. It is not enough for a council to be conservative; it must be progressive also. East Liverpool is growing at a rate few eastern Ohio cities can equal. Its lawmakers need therefore to legislate, not only for a city of the present size, but with the fact in mind that the requirements of a much larger city are soon to be met and faced. The present condition of the city's finances is such that caution and prudence in expenditures are imperative. Difficult problems confront the present council; they cannot be avoided, but must be met and solved. The city is looking for an able and business-like administration, and will hold each member of council responsible for his effort or lack of effort to give it. We are aware of the fact that the councilman's lot is not a happy one. Whether he does much or little for his constituents and for the city, somebody is bound to grumble. But the man who cannot stand censure as well as praise when he is putting forth honest effort in a good cause ought never to sit in the city's council. The business of the city is rapidly growing larger and must inevitably demand more and more of thought and attention from those who are entrusted with it. Those who have not the time or the inclination to give freely of both ought never to seek councilmanic honors. We trust the gentlemen who have taken the oath of office will not overlook this fact, but will be diligent, faithful and watchful of the best interests of the whole city. Nobody expects impossibilities of the council, but everybody expects its members to work and do their level best.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Eliza F. Blythe.

Mrs. Eliza F. Blythe, aged 79 years, died at the home of her nephew, Huber H. Blythe, on College street, last evening, of old age. The funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Blythe was the daughter of the late Sanford Hill, and had been a resident of this city for about 70 years. During the past winter she had made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Blythe, but before that she resided on Broadway. Mrs. Blythe was the last of the charter members of the First Presbyterian church of this city. She was born December 20, 1822.

AT THE THEATER

Quite a large house witnessed the presentation of "The Electrician" at the Grand last evening. The production was somewhat different from any other seen in this city in recent years, and it was well received.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Ohio—Showers and cooler today. Tomorrow fair, brisk to high south west to west winds along the lake.

Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia—Showers and not so warm today. Tomorrow fair and cooler, brisk to high south winds, becoming west.

All Humors

Are impure matters which the skin, liver, kidneys and other organs can not take care of without help, there is such an accumulation of them.

They litter the whole system.

Pimples, boils, eczema and other eruptions, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, bilious turns, fits of indigestion, dull headaches and many other troubles are due to them.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Remove all humors, overcome all their effects, strengthen, tone and invigorate the whole system.

"I had salt rheum on my hands so that I could not work. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it drove out the humor. I continued its use till the sores disappeared." Mrs. IRA O. BROWN, Rumford Falls, Me.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

Remove all humors, overcome all their effects, strengthen, tone and invigorate the whole system.

Fred Webb and John Wolf, kilnmen at the Buckeye, were compelled to quit work yesterday morning at lunch time on account of illness. They were, however, able to resume their benches this morning.

ED. A. KING,

The new council has entered upon its duties and the city is looking to it for an energetic and business-like policy. The same care, thoughtfulness and diligence that a man exercises in his own business should be exercised in looking after the city's affairs. It is not enough for a council to be conservative; it must be progressive also. East Liverpool is growing at a rate few eastern Ohio cities can equal. Its lawmakers need therefore to legislate, not only for a city of the present size, but with the fact in mind that the requirements of a much larger city are soon to be met and faced. The present condition of the city's finances is such that caution and prudence in expenditures are imperative. Difficult problems confront the present council; they cannot be avoided, but must be met and solved. The city is looking for an able and business-like administration, and will hold each member of council responsible for his effort or lack of effort to give it. We are aware of the fact that the councilman's lot is not a happy one. Whether he does much or little for his constituents and for the city, somebody is bound to grumble. But the man who cannot stand censure as well as praise when he is putting forth honest effort in a good cause ought never to sit in the city's council. The business of the city is rapidly growing larger and must inevitably demand more and more of thought and attention from those who are entrusted with it. Those who have not the time or the inclination to give freely of both ought never to seek councilmanic honors. We trust the gentlemen who have taken the oath of office will not overlook this fact, but will be diligent, faithful and watchful of the best interests of the whole city. Nobody expects impossibilities of the council, but everybody expects its members to work and do their level best.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Eliza F. Blythe.

Mrs. Eliza F. Blythe, aged 79 years, died at the home of her nephew, Heber H. Blythe, on College street, last evening, of old age. The funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Blythe was the daughter of the late Sanford Hill, and had been a resident of this city for about 70 years. During the past winter she had made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Blythe, but before that she resided on Broadway. Mrs. Blythe was the last of the charter members of the First Presbyterian church of this city. She was born December 20, 1822.

AT THE THEATER

Quite a large house witnessed the presentation of "The Electrician" at the Grand last evening. The production was somewhat different from any other seen in this city in recent years, and it was well received.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Ohio—Showers and cooler today. Tomorrow fair; brisk to high south west to west winds along the lake.

Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia—Showers and not so warm today. Tomorrow fair and cooler; brisk to high south winds, becoming west.

All Humors

Are impure matters which the skin, liver, kidneys and other organs can not take care of without help, there is such an accumulation of them.

They litter the whole system.

Pimples, boils, eczema and other eruptions, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, bilious turms, fits of indigestion, dull headaches and many other troubles are due to them.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

"I had salt rheum on my hands so that I could not work. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it drove out the humor. I continued its use till the sores disappeared." Mrs. Ida O. Brown, Rumford Falls, Me.

from the American people for such a purpose. The money has come from the people; the amount given by the wealthy classes is very small in comparison. No appropriation of congress or of the general assembly of Ohio will be asked to augment the people's contribution.

Ohio will soon have another campaign on its hands. The Republicans are in excellent fighting trim and prepared to win next fall. Their state central committee meets in Columbus today to fix the time and place for the meeting of this year's convention. It is already determined to hold the convention the last of May or first of June, and Columbus will probably secure the honor without opposition. Governor Nash will be made temporary chairman and Senator Foraker permanent chairman. The ticket will be a short one and will consist of candidates for secretary of state, supreme judge and member board of public works. A nomination will also be made for dairy and food commissioner provided the bill to extend the term of Mr. Blackburn fails to become a law.

One of the most popular suggestions made to the new council is the recommendation of City Engineer Kelly that signs designating the names of the streets be placed at every street corner. Council cannot overlook this suggestion without ignoring a plain requirement of the law as well as the wishes of the people.

It is suggested that J. P. Morgan might organize a syndicate to govern the South American republics which are addicted to the revolutionary habit. Then he would have business enough to last him the rest of his life.

It is said Wellsville proposes to distinguish herself by proving she has over 9,000 population. Whatever Wellsville may lack in population, there is no discounting the fact that she is "long" on ambition.

Not satisfied with a trust that has placed beef out of sight, the packing barons of Chicago are now credited with an intention to corner the supply of poultry and eggs. Watch your chicken coop!

Dakota is in the midst of a fierce blizzard, while Ohio and the south are complaining of unseasonable heat. The American climate is certainly varied and comprehensive.

Higgins.

William Knap, a jiggerman, who has been working at the Akron pottery, which was recently destroyed by fire, is spending several weeks in this city visiting friends. Mr. Knap stated that the work of repairing the damaged plant has been commenced and that the company expected to have the jigger shop in operation within a month at the furthest.

Frank Farren, a sagger maker at Laughlin No. 2, who has been unable to work for several days on account of illness, has resumed his bench.

Henry Weible, a jiggerman, who has been working at the National for several months, is now located at the Wallace & Chetwynd.

Alfred McKinnon, a clay digger at the mines of the American Sewer Pipe Company in the East End, is ill at his home.

James Mount, pin boy at the glost end at the Buckeye, has resigned his position. It will be filled by Edward McGonigle.

Norman Blazier and Bert McConnell will represent Salem local union 42 at the Brotherhood convention.

George E. Sebring, who has been in the city for several days on business, has returned to his home.

has resigned his position. His successor has not yet been named.

Miss Gertrude Golding, employed in the decorating shop of the Wallace & Chetwynd pottery, has been unable to work for several days on account of a sore nose.

The regular meeting of the Potters' Exchange was held last evening in the Potters' Club on Fifth street. It is stated that only routine matters were considered.

At a meeting of kilnmen's local No. 9, which will be held in Brotherhood Hall Friday evening, new delegates to Trades and Labor Council will be elected.

Miss Carrie Weight, a sponger for the turners at the Diamond, who has been confined to her home on account of illness for a week, has resumed work.

Frank Farren, a sagger maker at Laughlin No. 2, who has been unable to work for several days on account of illness, has resumed his bench.

Henry Weible, a jiggerman, who has been working at the National for several months, is now located at the Wallace & Chetwynd.

James Mount, pin boy at the glost end at the Buckeye, has resigned his position. It will be filled by Edward McGonigle.

Norman Blazier and Bert McConnell will represent Salem local union 42 at the Brotherhood convention.

George E. Sebring, who has been in the city for several days on business, has returned to his home.

Miss Mary Gillespie, a finisher at the "old end," was taken suddenly ill shortly after she commenced work yesterday morning, and had to be removed to her home in lower Fourth street in a carriage. Her condition was somewhat improved last evening, but it will be but a few days until she will be able to resume her duties.

It is reported that Trenton manufacturers are about to take a decided stand against the exorbitant freight rates to the South. It is not known just how they will go about having the tariff reduced, but it is understood that they are planning to bring about a decided moderation in the present excessive charges.

Thomas Devon, who with his brother, Harry Devon, recently came to this city from England, have both secured positions. The former is working on the biscuit end at the Harker plant, while Harry is located on the glost end at the D. E. McNichol pottery.

A local paper last evening published the story relative to the action of the Burgess Stilt Co. desiring to change the location of its plant. The story was published in this column when it was news in January.

Fred Webb and John Wolf, kilnmen at the Buckeye, were compelled to quit work yesterday morning at lunch time on account of illness. They were, however, able to resume their benches this morning.

FIXING FOR PICNICS

Panhandle Railroad Improving Its Tracks in Vicinity of Rock Springs.

The Panhandle Railroad company is preparing its tracks at Chester for the picnic season at Rock Springs, which gives promise of being larger this season than ever before. During the past few days the Steubenville work train has been engaged in widening the paths on either side of the trestle near the park, and when necessary passengers can get from the excursion trains and walk to the park without first having to walk back over the trestle. The same plan will be followed when the trains are being loaded for the return trips.

GRAND CROWD EXPECTED

At the Championship Basket Ball Game to Be Played Tonight.

Extensive preparations are being made today for the championship basket ball game which is to be played this evening between the D. C. & A. C. of Pittsburg, and the Y. M. C. L. of Steubenville, for the championship of eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania. The regulation baskets were placed this morning, one at the south end and one at the north end of the pavilion.

A number of benches have been placed around the hall off the accommodation of the large crowd that is anticipated.

PARK IMPROVEMENTS

Roller Coaster And Merry-Go-Round Being Prepared for Business.

For the past few days a number of men have been kept at work on the roller coaster at Rock Springs park, fixing up the tracks and oiling the machinery. The cars have been removed from their place of storage and have also been put into good shape. They will be put into use this evening, at which time the coaster will be opened for the summer season.

Carpenters are now at work on the addition to the floor of the merry-go-round, which is to be remodeled for the summer. It will be opened some time next week.

Drilling for Oil

Drilling for oil has commenced on the Frank farm at Hockstewen. The hole is now 200 feet deep and oil is expected to be struck during the last of the week.

SENATORS FAVOR RE-DISTRICTING

Hanna and Foraker Want Columbus and Dayton Districts Changed.

DICK IS OUT OF THE RACE

For the Governorship According to Report—New Municipal Code Bill to Be Drafted—Big Industrial Project Falls Through.

Columbus, April 23.—(Special)— Senator Chamberlin, of Elyria, and Representative Worthington, of Belmont, have returned from Washington where they conferred with the leaders. Senator Chamberlin says that Senator Hanna and Foraker and Congressmen Dick and Grosvenor favor the changing of the Columbus and Dayton districts, which would give the Republicans seventeen Congressmen. The Senate has appointed a committee to confer with the house committee about the matter. Mr. Worthington said that Senator Hanna stated that General Dick would not be candidate for governor, preferring to stand aside in order not to place in jeopardy the candidacy of Senator Hanna for re-election to the United States Senate.

The Comings bill authorizing the appointment of a commission to draft a new municipal code bill has been recommended for passage. Representative Price, of Athens, introduced a substitute for the uniform system of public accounting bill. The new measure is like the original, except that it gives the auditor of state power to appoint three inspectors at salaries of $2,000 each, and a clerk at a salary of $1,500, and such other help as may be necessary.

It is believed that John F. Ward, of Youngstown, is slated for the factory and workshop inspectorship of the district embracing Mahoning county and counties north, to succeed Deputy Inspector Warren Hall, of Warren. Chief Inspector Morgan has assurance that Columbus will be selected as the meeting place for next year's convention of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel and Tin Workers. Eastern Ohio delegates favor Columbus.

The unfortunate creature was locked up last night by Officer Woods and when arrested was helplessly drunk. He is a tin worker and is employed in the Chester mills. Chief Thompson is giving him medical aid, but he will not be in condition for a hearing before the mayor for several days.

CROWDS WILL COME

From Steubenville And Down the River to Witness Tonight's Basket Ball Contest.

Steubenville proposes to send a large delegation to the basket ball game at Rock Springs park tonight, being the last contest of the season between the Steubenville Y. M. C. L. and the D. C. & A. C. Each has won one game from the other. So confident in Steubenville of winning that Manager Farren offers to bet $100 on Steubenville, according to a paper of that city.

Editor Brown, of New Cumberland, has ordered 50 reserve seats and all the down river section appears stirred up over the game.

A MOVING SEASON

Many Farmers About Calcutta Change Locations This Spring.

A gentleman from Calcutta wandered into this city yesterday, and it seemed that he knew of more changes of the location of farmers in that locality than any other person who has been in the city for a month. After a News Review reporter had been talking to him for a short time the gentleman said:

"Well, I suppose you want some news. Would you believe it that more farms have changed hands during the past fortnight than ever before in a like time? John Dailey, of Gardendale, is going to move on the Howard Davis farm at Sprucevale, and John Reed has moved from the John Steel farm to the Jack Thompson farm. John Farmer has given up the Jack Thompson farm and is now located on the Jim Rauch place, near Five Points. Samuel Reed has moved from the country to Calcutta, and I was told today that William Shapley was going to change from the Tatgenhorst farm to that vacated by Sam Reed."

PROBATE MATTERS

Will Filed And Administrators Appointed By Judge Boone.

Lisbon, April 23.—(Special)—The will of the late Moses B. Joseph, of Wellsville, was filed for probate yesterday.

L. P. Metzger, of Salem, has been appointed administrator of Joseph Allmon, late of Perry township. Bond $800. Albert Hayes, R. B. Heaton and O. J. Asty are appraisers.

Mary E. Getz, formerly Mary E. Garwood, having resigned as administratrix of the estate of William T. S. Garwood, late of Perry township. A. W. Taylor has been appointed administratrix. Bond $2,500.

PROVIDENTIAL RAIN FELL.

Save Wisconsin Crops—Deaths From Tornadoes In That State. Snowfall In Northwest.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 23.—Showers throughout Wisconsin late yesterday brought an end to the hot weather which threatened for a time to ruin the crops in many parts of the state.

Last night's specials from various parts of the state tell of much damage done by the high winds.

At Cumberland, Wis., the heavy rains put out a forest fire which threatened to do great damage. At New Richmond, Arthur Roetger, aged 14 years, was struck by lightning while eating lunch in a school house and instantly killed.

At Herkimer a tornado yesterday afternoon blew down two barns, killing Gillett Reed, a farmer, and six head of cattle.

At Johnson's Creek, Wis., a tornado destroyed a barn, seriously injuring Mary Fertisch, 15 years old, and doing minor damage.

Jamestown, N. D., April 23.—The severest April snow storm ever known in this section of the state began early yesterday and steadily increased in fury. Over a foot of snow fell during the day. Railroad traffic was at a standstill, with the exception of through passenger trains on the Northern Pacific.

Deadwood, S. D., April 23.—Yesterday two feet and a half of snow had fallen here since Monday noon and it was still falling. A high wind accompanied the storm and all trains were delayed. The storm was general over the hills.

Lincoln, Neb., April 23.—There was a drop in the temperature yesterday from the high point of Monday of from 40 to 50 degrees throughout the state. Following a slight fall of rain, the wind changed from the south to the northwest, and last night a snow storm was prevailing in Central Nebraska with indications of a blizzard. Railroad reports from the extreme northwestern part of Nebraska and the Black Hills told of a heavy fall of snow, 15 inches at Custer and nearly two feet at Spearfish.

Crowder Exonerates British.

Washington, April 23.—The president received last night the complete report of Colonel Enoch Crowder, U. S. A., who was sent to Port Chalmette, La., to investigate the British camp established there. The report completely exonerates the British officials of any violation of the neutrality laws.

Ballplayer Joss Surrendered.

Toledo, O., April 23.—Addie Joss, the baseball pitcher connected with the Cleveland American league team who was recently indicted by the grand jury on the charge of receiving money under false pretenses, gave himself up yesterday and was placed under $500 bond. Joss jumped a Toledo contract and went to Cleveland.

Lack of Originality.

Says a Philadelphia physician: "The utter lack of originality in the human mind vexes me. Even the insane are not original in their delusions and manias, but they can be divided into classes, and each class has its one little uniform and unvarying set of aberrations. The insane cannot be other than imitative and commonplace."

Don't Overlook This.

Ten room house and lot, located off the corner Fourth and Jackson. Hot and cold water, bath and gas, must be sold at once.

Also one half acre tract and six nicely located lots in Pleasant Heights and eight lots fronting on Trentvale street.

TO BEATIFY AS SAINT.

Body of Bishop Neuman Exhumed. In Remarkable State of Preservation.

Philadelphia, April 23.—The tomb in which the body of Bishop John N. Neumann was placed 42 years ago was opened yesterday by a special ecclesiastical court, the proceeding being one of the final acts preliminary to the beatification of the prelate.

Two witnesses swore that they witnessed the burial of the bishop and two physicians wrote a minute description of the remains.

The evidence collected by the ecclesiastical court during the inquiry, which has been in progress for several years, will now be forwarded to Rome.

The Very Rev. Joseph Wissel, of Peter's church, in which edifice the remains of the bishop lay, last night gave out a statement. The body, which was attired in the bishop's vestments, was mummified. The face was a little sunken and out of natural shape, but the rest of the body was in a remarkable state of preservation.

The evidence collected by the ecclesiastical court during the inquiry, which has been in progress for several years, will now be forwarded to Rome.

It is not known just when the boat will be ready for business, but it will probably be as soon as satisfactory arrangements have been made between Mr. Goucher and Watson Johnson, who owns the Congo landing place and will not allow Goucher to land his boat there.

George D. Ingram, of Congo, who was the attorney for Johnson in the recent fight for a franchise against Goucher to operate the ferry, states that Goucher will never be able to run the ferry between the two towns, as Johnson means to fight the matter to a finish, and already holds the trump card.

Back from a Wreck.
The relief train which was sent out from Wellsville some time last week to assist in clearing away the debris of a burned bridge at Anbury, O., on the C. A. & C. division of the Pennsylvania lines, returned here last evening. It has been away for nearly one week.

Made Three Arrests.
Officers Thorn and Pittenger arrested three men yesterday, one charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct and two with vagrancy. All will appear before the mayor today for the customary $1 and costs.

MINOR NEWS OF WELLSVILLE.
C. L. Foreman, of Steubenville, is in the city on business.

A. C. McKnight, of Akron, was in the city last evening on business.

F. S. Grace, of Steubenville, was in the city last evening on a business trip.

WELLSVILLE

FELL AND DROWNED

COLORED FIREMAN LOST FROM A RIVER STEAMER.

The Accident Occurred Near Congo And the Body Was Not Recovered.

A colored fireman of the towboat Gleaner, which passed through Wellsville at 5:30 last evening, fell off the boat when opposite the east end of Congo, having fainted, and was drowned. A few of the attaches of the boat who were standing nearby saw him fall, but did not see him after he went under the water.

The tow boat was immediately stopped and two skiffs were sent out to look for the man, but no trace of him could be found. The boat waited for about 10 minutes and then resumed its journey towards Pittsburgh. The body of the dead man has not yet been found.

STEAM FERRY BOAT

Due in Wellsville This Week—An Excursion to Be Given.

The new steam ferry boat, owned by Samuel D. Goucher, of New Cumberland, which is to ply between Wellsville and Congo, is due to arrive tomorrow from Pittsburgh. Captain Goucher is expected to come with it. It has been stated upon good authority that an opening excursion will be held some time this week, to which all of the Wellsville city council and the Hancock county circuit court officials have been invited.

It is not known just when the boat will be ready for business, but it will probably be as soon as satisfactory arrangements have been made between Mr. Goucher and Watson Johnson, who owns the Congo landing place and will not allow Goucher to land his boat there.

There is a legend of the church that the bodies of saints exhumed many years after burial show signs of extraordinary preservation. The body, it is understood, was not embalmed when first interred.

Physicians are now examining persons who claim to have been cured by miracles performed by Bishop Neumann. Yesterday's ceremony is said to have been the first ever held in the United States.

ENGINEER SHOT BY THIEVES.

They Robbed the Safes of a Brewery and Toll House.

Pittsburg, April 23.—Five burglars blew open the safe of the Bauerlein plant of the Pittsburg Brewing company, at Millvale, and secured $125 and some jewelry. They later carried off the safe from the toll house at Willow Grove, and broke it open near the railroad, securing $450.

They had just finished this job when their further operations in this vicinity were ended by the arrival of a West Penn freight train. Frank Stump, the engineer, residing at Thirteenth street, Sharpsburg, by the aid of his engine headlight, saw the burglars finishing their work, and determined to go after them. On the train with him were J. W. Woss, Avery street, Allegheny, conductor; John Heilman, J. Reinhardt and W. L. Taylor, brakemen. Stump called these to his assistance and went after the burglars.

The burglars waited until the train crew came comparatively close, when each of the five burglars discharged his revolver once. Stump received at least three of the five shots. Two of them were comparatively slight, but the third one entered his side and the wound is of a rather serious nature. As soon as the shots had been fired, the burglars retreated in the direction of Allegheny, while the crew gave their attention to their wounded leader.

A UNIFORM SYSTEM

Bill Introduced to Create a Department of Public Accounting.

SOLONS WANT TO QUIT

Interesting Budget of Gossip About Measures of Public Concern Picked Up in the Legislative Halls at Columbus.

Columbus, O., April 23.—[Special.] Boards of trade and chambers of commerce throughout the state, which are not disposed as a rule to exercise a lively interest in matters of legislation, and yet wake up at times and work with a will, are now deeply concerned over a bill which Mr. Price of Athens has drafted, and which is a substitute for two bills introduced earlier in the year traveling along the same line. The new bill is for the creation of a Bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices and for the establishment of a uniform system of public accounting, auditing and reporting, under the supervision of the state auditor. Now, as everybody knows, there is nothing of that character, and we have almost as many different systems as we have different towns and counties, all of which causes State Auditor Guibert much worry and fills him with a desire to see it changed.

The bill is the result of work upon the part of Allen Ripley Foote of New York, a somewhat noted and particularly energetic economist of New York and elsewhere, for Foote is a migrating sort of man, who goes everywhere seeking those to whom he can do good, and from whom good can come. As presented to the legislature, it has been much changed from the original draft, in order to incorporate the idea of Mr. Price and other statesmen.

It provides for the establishment in the department of the auditor of state of a bureau to be known as the bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices. The chief drawer to this bureau is to be auditor himself, and under him are to be three deputies of his own appointment, each of whom is to receive a salary of $2,000 per year, together with hotel, traveling expenses, etc. There will also be a home clerk, to remain in the auditor's office, at a salary of $1,500. The auditor, with the assistance of this help, is to formulate a system of accounting and reporting, which shall be uniform for every public office and every account of the same class, and which shall exhibit true accounts and detailed statements of funds collected and expended for account of the public for any purpose and by all public officers, such accounts to show the receipt, use and disposition of all public property, and the income, if any, derived therefrom. It further is to show all sources of public income, the amounts due and received from each source, all receipts, vouchers and other documents kept, or that may be required to be kept, necessary to isolate and prove the validity of every transaction and all statements and reports made, or required to be made, for the internal administration of the different public offices. Moreover it is to take in all reports published for the information of the people in order that they may keep a close tab on the financial doings of their public servants.

There is more to the bill. A separate account is to be kept for every appropriation of fund made by a taxing body, and for every public service industry. Comparative statements are to be kept from year to year in order that it may be shown whether the people's money is being judiciously and carefully expended.

After the system has been thoroughly formulated and installed the inspections of the auditor are to make annual trips about the state to look into the books of the different officials, check up accounts, etc., and see that all things are being conducted in a decent and orderly manner, and woe betide the official who is found derelict in his duty if the inspector be a man of courage and familiar with his duty.

Auditor Guibert is thoroughly and conscientiously impressed with the wisdom of the measure and his sincerity of desire has extended to the commercial organizations of the state, or many of them at least, who desire to share with him the work of putting it through.

The bill, in a way, supplements a measure already enacted into a law, providing for the annual inspection of state institutions, and it is also analogous to a pending bill creating a state banking department, which shall have under its control all state banks, visiting them annually and closely inspecting the conduct of affairs.

It was thought that with the passage of the law providing for municipal local option the temperance legislation of this session was practically at an end, and that there were none so bold as to endeavor to force through another bill. Yet it now appears that was a mistake. Price of Athens, who during his speakership fight was rather tauntingly referred to as the friend of the liquor interests, has announced his determination to press to a passage this week his measure of early session introduction increasing the Dow tax from $350 to $500. Now Mr. Price's reasons for this are of a conflicting nature. He believes the measure is just, and for that his own word is to be had. But another object is to show that he is in no wise controlled by the liquor element, and to place those men who accused him of being upon record.

"They stood out and shouted for temperance legislation at the start. They declared I was against it. They made an issue of a question which had no place in the speakership fight. Now let us see where they stand. They said I was against any legislation contrary to the liquor interests. Yet I have introduced this bill and will vote for it. Will they do likewise? If so, I think it will be passed." The bill is now in the hands of the committee to which it was referred some weeks ago. Mr. Price's plan is to bring it out on the open floor of the house, where it may be fought and a vote taken upon it.

There is little likelihood of the other temperance measure, the one providing for local option by wards, ever coming from the temperance committee's hands. It would not do to ask for too much in a single session.

The municipal code bill, just as was said, and as everybody believed, has gone by the boards for two years at least, but, Phoenix like, it will bob up again then for consideration. The postponement of the measure for so long a time was a sad blow to Mr. Comings of Lorain, who championed it.

Mr. Myers of Montgomery has introduced a bill aimed directly at an American institution—the American jury. What court room is there in the country that does not have its regular jurors, its old standbys, who serve from term to term and year to year, and are never lacking in good natured readiness to go on duty. Yet Mr. Myers has the temerity to attack them, to take away their livelihood and their pleasure. He has prepared and presented a bill making it a misdemeanor to any way solicit service on a jury, even to the extent of waiting around a court room in an expectant mood.

The seeds of discontent are being sown and members are counting the days until they can get away. For the first three months of a session during the cold and more disagreeable weather a legislature is a patient body, going along with no particular thought of the morrow, and attending to each day's work as it comes along. The fourth month—and that ends with this week—it is harder to be patient. Warmer weather comes and the days are pleasanter. There is a longing to get out in the open, to get home and take up the regular routine of work. After the fourth month the wait is simply tantalizing and every day is a burden. Members fret in their seats and stew at the delay. They grow impatient, and there is no longer attractiveness in legislative halls. Next week it will reach that stage. Then work will go through with a rush, things will be brushed out of the way, and on a week from next Monday the final adjournment will undoubtedly come, and good-bys be spoken. But there is much to do before then, and several matters of importance need settlement. The appropriation bills must all be passed and money provided for state institutions and departments; several of the taxation measures affecting corporations are yet in the hands of the senate or the house, and must be taken out to make the administration's tax plan complete. The primary election law is yet unpassed, although one of the most important of the session.

There has been a somewhat general alarm among friends of the public schools throughout the state as well as a misapprehension as to the feature of the Cole bill reducing the levy for common school purposes from one mill to .95 of a mile. The fear has been that this would reduce the amount of money annually given by the state for school purposes. In reality it does nothing of the kind. Because of the increase in the tax duplicate and the valuation of property it has been found that a levy of .95 of a mill will bring into the state as much money as a mill has done heretofore. Therefore the reduction was made. The schools will get as much as heretofore.

Dairy and Food Commissioner Blackburn is still working quietly in behalf of the bill extending the term of the commission from two to three years, thereby giving him a year's further lease on the office. The bill went through the senate almost unopposed, but in the house a somewhat violent dissent has manifested itself. But Mr. Blackburn is not without hope. He has staunch friends who are working in his interest and when the bill is brought up, which will probably be the latter part of this week, he expects it to go through and become a law.

The bill, in a way, supplements a measure already enacted into a law, providing for the annual inspection of state institutions, and it is also analogous to a pending bill creating a state banking department, which shall have under its control all state banks, vis-

Pennsylvania Association Elected Officers—Creasy Likely to Be Elected Chairman.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 23.—The annual meeting of the Democratic State Editorial association was held here last night, at which P. Gray Meek, of Bellefonte, was re-elected president.

Other officers were chosen as follows:

Vice presidents, J. Irvin Steele, of Ashland, and John F. Short, of Clearfield; secretary and treasurer, William P. Hastings, of Milton; executive committee, D. A. Orr, Harrisburg; Charles A. Stahle, Gettysburg; W. W. Bailey, Johnstown; J. W. Maloy, Lansford; A. Kneule, Norristown, and J. B. Coulston, Coudersport.

Messrs. Meek and Short were appointed a committee to wait upon Chairman Williams T. Creasy, of the Democratic state committee, and urge him to adopt a different policy in the matter of furnishing news and political opinions to country newspapers throughout the state.

The state administration, the "last legislature, the Republican state organization and the Harris-Meek liberal trial at Clearfield last February by the Democratic editors were believed to contain much more important political matter upon which the result of the next campaign will depend than the line of politics now discussed in the weekly letters issued from state headquarters.

Mr. Creasy is expected to have no opposition for re-election at the annual meeting of the state committee here today to fix the time and place for holding the next state convention for the nomination of candidates for governor, lieutenant governor and secretary of internal affairs. The convention will probably be held in this city on June 25.

ACCUSED OF INCENDIARISM.

Men Under Arrest at Huntington, Pa.—Sons of Prominent Men Accused.

Huntington, Pa., April 23.—After 11 months of hard work by the local authorities, augmented by foreign detective talent, informations were made last night against three alleged firebugs who have been operating here. Twenty-two fires, mostly barns, including much live stock, were destroyed, as well as the opera house and many other business places. A reward of $1,000 was ineffectually offered by the city council.

Friday night another barn, with two horses, was burned, and on information of Max Swartz, the owner, Landis Steele, son of Prothonotary Steel and manager of the Reformatory, and Harry Miller, of this place, were arrested last night and placed in jail. A warrant is also out for Thomas Waite, son of ex-District Attorney Waite. A number of others suspected will be arrested.

York, Pa., April 23.—The large bank barn of C. C. Wolf, eight miles southeast of York, was destroyed by an incendiary fire last night. Forty head of fat beef cattle and ten horses and mules perished in the flames.

The house has refused to concur, and therefore killed Senator Hosea's bill permitting both life and accident insurance companies to sell health policies. Now there wasn't any good reason for the house doing this except that it felt in a bad mood and was tired out and nobody defended the measure. The Democrats refused to vote at all; there were not Republicans enough present to make a quorum, and the bill fell by the wayside.

The bill by Senator Harding reorganizing the National Guard and making it in the adoption of tactics more nearly comply with the United States army has passed both branches of the legislature, and is now a law.

TWO FIGHTS WITH THE MOROS.

Mindanao Natives Attacked Detachment of United States Troops, But Were Repulsed.

Manila, April 23.—Two engagements have been fought between the American troops and the Moros of the island of Mindanao during the 24 hours preceding yesterday. Moore, of the Twenty-seventh infantry, while out with a small party hunting for water, was fired upon at long range.

Lieutenant Frank D. Baldwin, with a battalion of troops and a mountain gun, went to the assistance of Moore's party and drove off the Moros, who lost seven men. The firing was at 1,100 yards' range.

The Moro villages were flying red flags, meaning that they intended to fight to the uttermost.

Later Sultan Pualo and a force of natives attempted to reoccupy the ground gained by the Americans, but the Moros were dispersed.

Washington, April 23.—The war department has instructed General Chaffee to delay the departure of the proposed expedition into Mindanao until after the receipt of further directions from Washington. The president desires to exhaust all other means of effecting the capture of the Moros who murdered American soldiers before dispatching an armed expedition for that purpose. Meanwhile, however, that portion of General Davis' command which was selected for the journey will still be held in readiness, and all preparations up to the point of actual departure will be made.

THE POPE THANKFUL

To the Hand Which Continues to Sustain Him, In Fulfilling His Duties.

STRONGER THAN 5 YEARS AGO,

Bourke Cockran Says He Found Him—Expressed His Great Friendliness For America—Keen Knowledge of Our Affairs.

London, April 23.—W. Bourke Cockran, of New York, who sails for the United States today, described to a representative of the Associated Press yesterday his recent audience with the pope. Mr. Cockran said:

"It was five years since I had seen his holiness, and I rather dreaded this visit lest I might see some of the cruel inroads of age. To my astonishment I found the pope to be stronger, mentally and physically, than when I first saw him. The accuracy of his memory, the sweetness of his voice and the brightness of those wonderful eyes seem to have been accentuated rather than diminished by the intervening five years."

"His holiness expressed, as he always does, his great friendliness for America and exhibited a keen knowledge of American affairs. Nothing relating to the Philippine islands or to politics was mentioned; our conversation was almost exclusively upon ecclesiastical matters. He expressed deep thankfulness to The Hand which continued to sustain him in fulfilling his great duties, and how, as the years passed, his realization of responsibility increased. 'Yet,' he added, 'I feel very deeply that all the decrees I may make are as equally binding upon myself as upon the humblest member of the church.'

Pittsburg, April 23.—The Presbyterian general assembly will hear good news from the different boards of the church. A local paper made inquiries as to their financial condition. The result was published yesterday, in part as follows:

The Rev. Dr. Elijah R. Craven, secretary of the board of Philadelphia, in Pittsburg, says in part:

"It gives me pleasure to state that the missionary department closed the year not only out of debt, but with a good working balance."

The Rev. Dr. Erskine E. White, of New York, secretary of the board of church erection, writes: "In answer to your inquiry, I must say that this board will close the year without debt, although the demands upon it have been the largest in its history."

The Rev. Dr. Charles L. Thompson of New York, whose board received $1,000,000 last year, writes: "We are glad to report that the home board has closed the fiscal year with a balance in the treasury of almost $5,000."

POPE WRITES TO BISHOPS.

Says He Loves America—Rejoices at Religious Freedom—Praises Their Work.

Rome, April 23.—Answering the solicitations of the American episcopate, the pope has written to Cardinal Gibbons and all the Catholic bishops expressing his gratitude for their good wishes. In the letter he says: "I strongly love America and rejoice in her development, and the progress of Catholicism and religious freedom. I pray that you will fight all errors."

Leo praises the work of the bishops, especially in augmenting schools and instituting missions for the diffusion of the faith. He concludes with his apostolic benediction.

Would Give Miles More Power.

Washington, April 23.—Senator Hawley, chairman of the senate committee on military affairs, introduced a bill yesterday to increase the efficiency of the army. The bill is radically different from that prepared by Secretary Root, which has been vigorously opposed by General Miles.

It eliminates the general staff system which Secretary Root favors and places upon General Miles the duties which the secretary of war would would impose on the Filipinos, declaring that it would establish one of the foulest oligarchies in the history of the world. He maintained that the Philippine commission was given too much power by the bill, and asserted that under its provisions the islands would be exploited for private gain.

While he was speaking two efforts were made to maintain a quorum, the second resulting in a lively tilt among several senators. Mr. Scott, of West Virginia, intimating that argument could not influence any senator.

CUBAN BILL CAUCUS.

Republican Senators Meet and Decide to Formulate a Reciprocity Measure.

CONFIDENT THEY CAN PASS IT.

Democrats Held Informal Consultations—Considered Principally Teller's Resolution For Inquiry as to Holdings of Present Stock of Sugar.

Washington, April 23.—The question of reciprocity with Cuba formed the subject of an important preliminary conference on the part of a majority of the Republican senators yesterday. This conference was held in the room of the senate committee on finance during the afternoon sitting of the senate and was extended for some time after the adjournment. In the main the senators invited to participate were those friendly to reciprocity legislation, but some of the opposition Republican members were present. In the absence of Senator Allison, Senator Hale presided. The result of the meeting may be summed up as follows:

There will be an early meeting of the senate committee on relations with Cuba to take up the question on the basis of the house bill, which is now before the committee; the Republican members of the committee will act together in formulating a sub for the house bill, and none of them are to co-operate with the Democratic members of the committee. The bill thus agreed upon by the Republicans members to be submitted to a Republican caucus of the senate and made a party measure.

With the exception of Senator Spangler, all the Republican members of the Cuban committee attended yesterday's meeting and, it is understood, tacitly or openly gave their adherence to the program. The leaders of the movement express confidence that it will be possible to report a bill out of the committee, and say their confidence also extends to the point of the passage of the bill by the senate.

The Democratic senators also were more or less engaged yesterday with the sugar question, but their conferences were all held on the floor of the senate and in the Democratic cloak rooms, and none of them were so formal or so well attended as the Republican conference. The Democratic consultations generally had reference to Senator Teller's resolution providing for an inquiry as to the holdings of the present stock of sugar, and there was at one time a practical assurance that sufficient votes couldn't be secured to pass the resolution. It would seem probable, however, that the result of the Republican conference may change the situation in that respect.

DENOUNCED PHILIPPINE BILL.

Rawlins Declared It Would Establish a Foul Oligarchy.

Washington, April 23.—Formal discussion of the bill temporarily to provide a government for the Philippine islands was begun in the senate yesterday, by a vote of 75 to 72, rejected claims bills by the senate aggregating $1,800,000, and on the heels of that action non-concurred in the whole senate amendment (the various items having been ruled to constitute a single amendment) and sent the bill to conference.

The military academy appropriation bill was passed yesterday after the limit of cost of the improvements at West Point had been reduced from six and a half to five and one-half millions and the amount of the appropriation in the bill from three to two millions.

The London stock exchange bill was called up, but was not disposed of.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman, writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

Helpless From Paralysis—John Powell, of Third street, is suffering with an attack of paralysis, which has rendered him almost helpless. He has worked for many years at the Cartwright pottery.

Hospital Association Meeting—The Hospital association meets tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. All members are requested to be present, as important business is to be transacted.

Cannot Recover—Mrs. Mollie Brown, who was notified a few days ago that she would receive a pension from the government of $8 per month, is very ill at her home on Franklin street. The old-colored lady is suffering from dropsy. She cannot recover.

Power Company Meeting—A meeting of the stockholders of the United Power company was to have been held at the office of the company today, but has been deferred until later in the week. It has been announced that matters of the utmost importance are to be considered at this meeting.

A Frightened Team—A piece of flying paper scared a team of horses attached to C. H. Tatgenhorst's milk wagon on Fourth street near Jackson at noon today. They ran rapidly to Washington street and thence to Fifth street. The horses were stopped before any damage was done.

Awarded a Judgment—Squire McLane awarded Mrs. Eliza Kenney a judgment and a writ of restitution against Willis Nichols this morning. Nichols has been renting a house on Third street belonging to Mrs. Kenney and not only refused to pay the rent, but refused to vacate, hence the action of the court.

THE NEW COUNCIL

CALLED TO ORDER

The new council was then called to order by Mayor William Davidson, the retiring president taking a seat among the others. It took but a short time for the organization to be completed, this requiring less than half an hour.

The new members sworn in were Johnson, Nice, Peach, McConnell and Marshall. The oath was administered by Mayor Davidson, who called the new council to order. The election of O. D. Nice to the presidency was practically a matter of form, as this had been decided upon at the caucus which was held before the regular meeting of council had been called to order.

As the gentleman was walking to his chair there was loud and prolonged applause, and in response Mr. Nice said:

"I thank you very much for this honor, gentlemen, and it will be my endeavor to give impartial decision in all matters that will be considered by this body in the future, as I have in the past." Again there was prolonged applause.

The election of a vice president resulted in the selection of John Horwell, while Willis Davidson was elected to the position of city clerk to fill the vacancy of the retiring clerk, James N. Hanley.

APPOINTMENTS MADE

BY MAYOR DAVIDSON

The appointments of Mayor Davidson were confirmed in the following order:

Board of health—Dr. Andrews and J. H. Harris.

Fire chief—H. Clinton Morley.

Wharfmaster—William M. McClure.

Sealer of weights and measures—Frederick Grim.

City engineer—C. J. Kelly.

Police officers—Michael Mahoney, Clifford Dawson, C. Homer Morris, Henry Aufderheide, Elsie Dunn, Hugh McDermitt, Jay Fisher.

Library board (Carnegie)—Thomas Collins and G. Y. Travis.

President Nice here announced his committees as follows:

Finance—Marshall, Horwell, Peach, Orr, Bullock, McConnell.

Claims—Johnson, McConnell and Orr.

Fire—Orr, Horwell and Johnson.

Police—Thomas, Orr and Barlow.

Light—McConnell, Barlow and Peach.

Wharf—Barlow, Horwell and Marshall.

Street—Bullock, Johnson and Peach.

Rules—Horwell, Thomas, Barlow, Bullock and Nice.

THE MAYOR'S MESSAGE ON STONE PILE SCHEME

Then came the climax of the evening when mention was made of the "municipal stone pile," which the mayor has been agitating so long and which is sure to be a good thing. It was stated that so many worthless characters were arrested in this city and as a trip to the works was expensive and not much good accomplished in the end, the mayor desired to place such characters at work on a stone pile, or to make them work at the old cemetery improving that property. Particular mention was made by the mayor in his message that if the request was granted it would in no way conflict with organized labor or any other honorable trade.

The message was received, and it will be given immediate attention by the new council, as it is considered an excellent idea.

The introduction of an ordinance to increase the salary of the city solicitor to $1,000 a year proved to be the best act of the evening, as there was no end of talk on this matter, first started by Councilman Peach, who desired to know if the finances of the city were in such bad shape, how this increase could be made. "I want to know if this is legal," said Mr. Peach, "and have we got the money to pay the increase?" If this matter had been sprung before the election it would have been different. Have we got the money?"

SOLICITOR'S SALARY

RAISED TO $1,000

Solicitor McGarry was asked for an opinion and said: "It seems that I am to act as judge and jury in this case and will say that I am willing to abide by the decision of council. Six years ago the council placed the salary of the solicitor at $1,300, but this lasted but one year, owing to the finances being low. When I was called to this office four years ago the matter of increasing the salary of this office was considered and nothing was done."

The councilman from the Fifth ward made a few remarks to council regarding his views on the subject and stated that the city solicitor worked for the election to this office for $50 a month, and that he did not think it was proper to increase it just at this time. He also told the solicitor what his duties were, which was the signal for Mr. McGarry to remark that he was there to look after the interests of the city and also the acts of council.

That was all that was said and the ordinance was passed, all members voting in favor of it with the exception of Marshall and Peach.

A petition signed by numerous shipper of the city was presented to council asking that the wharf be paved. The paper was referred to the wharf and street committees.

An ordinance authorizing the improvement of Drury lane from Washington to Market street was referred to the street committee.

The last act of the new council was to pass a resolution requiring all property owners to place or repair sidewalks in front of their property. Legal notice will be served on all property owners as soon as the resolution is prepared for representation.

for the efficient manner in which he conducted his part of council's work during the past year, and to the retiring president of council, O. D. Nice, a large bunch of thanks was thrown for the impartial manner rulings have been made during the past year.

Mr. Hanley said: "I thank you all for this esteemed favor, and I am only sorry that I cannot remain with you longer."

President Nice said nothing, as he was too modest to express his feelings.

Votes of thanks were tendered City Solicitor W. K. Gaston, Engineer Kelly and also to the representatives of the press, who have attended the meetings of council with more regularity than the members of council themselves.

He said the president was chairman of the committee. "While I have been appointed as chairman," said the doctor, "all of you know the law will not permit me to act as such. I do not even have authority to call a meeting of the committee. I will not take the responsibility without the authority."

President Nice replied: "In making Dr. Marshall chairman of that committee I merely carried out a precedent established by himself when president of this council, when he appointed Mr. Cripps to that position. My principal reason is because Dr. Marshall is responsible in a great measure for the financial straits into which the city has been plunged, and I propose to see that he assists in getting it out."

The matter of the appointment of members of the equalization board was deferred for two weeks until promises could be exacted from such as to what they would do to protect the interests of the citizens and the taxpayers. So far three names have been suggested for this board.

At the caucus meeting held prior to the regular session the names of John Rearn, F. G. Croxall and S. R. Dixson were suggested, and when a vote was taken the two former gentlemen were chosen. It was decided to not confirm these men until they had been interviewed as to what the taxpayers could expect from them.

The selection of sewer commissioners was also deferred until the next meeting, as there are several matters council desires to look into before vacancies on this board are filled.

Willis Davidson, the new clerk, did not take his seat last evening, as his bond had not been prepared, but it was expected today. This being the case he asked council to allow the retiring clerk to finish the first session of the new council, which request was willingly granted.

PROPOSED TO PAINT

UNSIGHTLY POLES

An ordinance was presented, which, if carried out, will be the means of greatly beautifying the city. The ordinance in substance was a law requiring that all telephone, telegraph and street railway poles be uniformly painted within 60 days after the passage of the ordinance. The paint shall be uniform on all poles, and the work must be done to the satisfaction of council. If the owners of such poles fail to comply with the ordinance a fine of $1 for each pole shall be levied by the mayor upon conviction for the first offense and $5 for each pole upon the second conviction. The ordinance was referred.

Mayor Davidson then called the attention of council to several matters which he deemed highly important, and upon which he has been working long and hard. Attention was called to the crowded condition of the cars of the East Liverpool Railway company, operating between the East End and the Diamond, between the hours of 6:30 and 8:30 a. m. and between 5 and 6:30 p. m. It was suggested that council call upon the street railway company and ask the officials to relieve this condition just as early as possible.

19TH YEAR. NO. 96.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 23, 1902.

TWO CENTS.

YEAR'S BUSINESS WOUND UP BY THE OLD CITY COUNCIL

New Body Organized and New City Officials Installed in Office.

MAYOR SENDS A MESSAGE

In Which the Municipal Stone Pile Idea Is Strongly Set Forth.

THE FINANCES OF THE CITY

Reported Upon by the Treasurer—Solicitor's Salary Raised—Report of Carnegie Library—Proposed Legislation of Importance.

The last meeting of the old and the first meeting of the new council was held last evening at city hall and was the signal for a large turnout of spectators. All the seats in the rear of the council chamber were filled with representative citizens, who enjoyed the proceedings of the evening.

Before the old council was called to order by President O. D. Nice the new council held a short caucus on matters that were to come up at the meeting and the members did their work well. Everything went smoothly, as far as appointments were concerned.

There was not much business done by the old council, the work in the main being left for the new council to look after.

It was the desire of some of the councilmen to place the ordinance to regulate the salaries of the city commissioner on its third and final reading, but the motion to suspend the rules was lost by a vote of 7 to 3.

Once more the matter of paying the election officers of the last general election an additional amount for the holding of extra elections was brought up, and at the suggestion of Mr. Bullock council decided that the officers should receive from the city not more than $1.50 each for their work. It was stated that the board of education was willing to pay the balance, or an additional $1.50, to each officer, which would make the officers receive $3 more for their day's work. The money was ordered paid.

REPORT MADE BY CITY TREASURER

Considerable interest was shown in the report of the city treasurer, which in part was as follows:

In treasury March 18, 1901, $125,971.06; overdrawn, $100,710.57; received during the year, $351,033.26; total, $476,904.32; paid out during the year, $348,243.38; balance on hand, $19,650.37; overdrawn, $79,967.21.

The report was accepted.

Clerk Hanley then read the report of the election result and stated that certificates of election had been forwarded to all those receiving the highest number of votes.

Engineer Charles Kelly, alert to the demands for the betterment of the city, told the council that improvements should be made on Bradshaw avenue, Pennsylvania avenue and Trentvale street at once. In some parts of the outskirts of the city there are a number of old coal and clay banks, and from these there is considerable water flowing on the streets. This surface water has proved to be a detriment to pedestrians and some means should be provided whereby the inconvenience should be done away with.

Another important matter that Mr. Kelly called the attention of council to was that of placing street signs at all corners. It was one of the best suggestions made during the entire session of the old council and received the approval of all. It is now up to the new council to make such a needed improvement.

The report of Wharfmaster William McClure showed that the receipts during the past year had been $100 and the expenditures had been half that amount. The balance had been retained as compensation for the work of Mr. McClure.

CARNEGIE LIBRARY

DIRECTORS' REPORT

The report of the Carnegie library directors was presented by Messrs. Peach and Travis and it was received. The report follows:

Received from Andrew Carnegie, $50,000; paid out on contracts for building, $34,784.47; paid for furniture, $991.20; insurance, $120; tax on real estate, $158.60; architect, $2,500; salaries librarian and janitor, $190.38; for stone work, walks, grading of grounds, alleys, etc., $2,016.32; electrical fixtures and wiring, $1,499.04; miscellaneous expenses, $369.31; total expenses, $42,629.32; balance in hands of treasurer, $7,370.68. Number of books on hand, 2,600; number purchased and not delivered, 400; number books donated, 108; total, 3,108.

There was some discussion over the introduction of an ordinance to improve Calcutta road from Wall street to the cemetery. One member said that he did not think the ordinance was proper and that in his opinion the intent of the law had not been carried out. This member stated that the commissioners who viewed the property along this street had not done their work in a manner that seemed proper to him, as the property had not been assessed with a view to how much it would be benefited by the improvement, but with a view of raising just so much money.

Several councilmen wanted to talk about the matter, but as the motion to suspend the rules had been lost, President Nice stated that he did not want to hear any remarks on the matter. The incident was then considered closed.

THREW BOUQUETS AT EACH OTHER

Following this little discussion came that part of the program where the city officials throw bouquets at each other. There was a large bunch of flowers in the guise of thanks tendered retiring Clerk James N. Hanley

LIBRARY OPENING

ARRANGEMENTS PROGRESSING FOR THE DEDICATION.

Program Will Be Completed in a Few Days—Closing Up Old Library.

Arrangements for the formal opening of the Carnegie library on May 1 are progressing rapidly and it is expected that a very interesting program will be prepared within a few days.

Prof. W. L. Thompson, G. Y. Travis and A. V. Gilbert have the matter in hand, and a number of noted speakers, both local and out-of-town, will be present on the occasion of the opening.

The program was to have contained the name of National Secretary T. J. Duffy, of the Brotherhood, but that gentleman will be compelled to go to Trenton on the date of the opening in order to be on the ground before the convention of the organization. The action of Mr. Duffy in declining is very much regretted by the board, and the committee is now engaged in a search for a substitute.

It has been arranged that all books now out shall be returned to the librarian of the public institution today, and none will be permitted to go out after that time. This move is made in order that the library can close up its business preparatory to turning over its possessions to the Carnegie board.

ACQUIRING REAL ESTATE

The Pennsylvania Company Negotiating for More Land Near Its Present Tracks.

It is expected that before another fortnight passes the Pennsylvania Railroad company will own considerably more property in and about this city than at present. It has been stated, and from a source that is considered most reliable, that overtures have been made by the railroad company to secure control of the property at the corner of Union street and Pink alley, now occupied by the Armour company, and that this transfer might be closed this week. While it has been known that the railroad company was after this parcel of land, matters have been resting for a few weeks, and now it is stated that a representative of the Armour company from Chicago is expected in the city this week, when the deal is to be finally closed.

The railroad company has also been after the Stewart property across the street from the Armour property, but there is no deal on at present for the transfer of this land. Mr. Stewart has advised the company that he would be willing to dispose of his property, and there the matter stands.

A relative of former Police Officer Thomas Stafford is in receipt of a letter from the runaway. He is now located in Orchard Grove, W. Va.

The letter contains the statement that the officer does not fear arrest, as he is located in a town that is easy to escape from, being on the border of another state. He says he will never live in East Liverpool again.

His relatives take from this assertion that he means to send for his wife and child, though the girl in whose company he left is still missing. It is not likely Mrs. Stafford would be willing to go to her husband, as from all reports he was not the most amiable creature when about home.

Nothing was said as to his intentions with reference to the support of his family, and it may be the authorities will have to be interested in the case before he can be induced to contribute to their keeping.

THE FIRST BALL GAME

Line-up of the Winter A. C. And East Liverpool for Tomorrow.

The base ball season will be opened in this city tomorrow afternoon with a game between the Winter Athletic club, of Pittsburgh, and the home team. The fans predict that the game will be full of life and that an exhibition of expert playing will be witnessed. The line-up will be as follows:

East Liverpool—Emmerling, catcher; Winters or Chambers, pitcher; Ferguson, short; F. Heckathorn, first; J. Heckathorn, second; Davis, third; Webb, left; Chadwick, center; Bentel, right.

Winter A. C.—Wilson, catcher; Jones, pitcher; Haskins, short; Cress, first; Osborne, second; Graham, third; Reynolds, left; Boyle, center; Bentel, right.

The game will be played in West End park, and will be called at 4 o'clock.

WRECK ON THE C. & P.

Bad Smash of Freight Cars at Macedonia Delayed Traffic.

A wreck on the C. & P. railroad at Macedonia last evening at 6:25 o'clock resulted in the destruction of an engine and eight cars and the delaying of passenger traffic for several hours. The wreck was the result of brakes failing to work, and besides playing havoc with the cars and engine tore up the track for several hundred feet.

A large force of men accompanied the wreck train from Wellsville to Macedonia this morning, and it is thought the debris will be cleared away by tonight.

"It is thought by some of those particularly interested in the combine, that 75 per cent. would make too big an affair, and that it will really cost too much to get up such a big company. A smaller one would be just as effective and it could be gotten together much quicker and at much less cost.

"It is given out that the reason why the progress of the combine has been so slow is that there are many small details from a legal standpoint which must be attended to before the proper efforts at enlarging begin.

All the Criminal Cases Assigned Will Be Heard the Coming Week.

MORE JURORS ARE DRAWN

An East Liverpool Wife Seeks Divorce, Charging Husband With Desertion.

SUITS FOR DAMAGES ENTERED

Pennsylvania Company And Buckeye Engine Company Defendants in Actions Brought Because of Personal Injuries.

Lisbon, April 22.—(Special)—Deputy Lawrence Allison went to East Liverpool today, intending to remain there this week. His trial is set for next Tuesday. All the criminal cases assigned will be heard next week.

To complete the petit jury for the April term, to fill places of those excused, the following names have been drawn: Thomas M. Pickall, Wm. T. Lewis, East Liverpool; W. F. Heckles, Salem; J. T. Rudibaugh, Millrock; Edward Close, East Palestine; Harvey Britton, Lisbon; Simon Summers, John Lease, Salem; S. S. Groner, Leetonia; John S. Scott, East Liverpool. These jury men are to report for duty April 28.

In the case of Ohio against Guy Boston, of Salem, on relation of Daisy Somers, of Sebring, the defendant failed to appear yesterday. The jury was impaneled and returned a verdict declaring Boston guilty as charged. The defendant was ordered by the court to pay to the mother of his child $350. His whereabouts are unknown and it is thought he will probably serve three months in jail rather than pay.

Lulu B. Smith, who was married to Nathaniel T. Smith in East Liverpool in 1895, has sued for divorce. She alleges that her husband has been wilfully absent over three years and has wholly disregarded his marital duties. She asks also the custody of their boy, born in October, 1895.

The divorce suit of Joseph W. House, of Wayne township, against Sarah J. House, which has been on file for some time, has been dismissed at the plaintiff's cost.

James B. Swearingen has filed an action against the Pennsylvania company and Dr. Angus Noble, in which he asks $1,900 damages. He says that while in the employ of the railroad at Wellsville his left arm was badly lacerated and wrenched. The company had Dr. Noble take care of him and the arm is now stiff and virtually useless in his labor.

Geo. W. Haines has sued the Buckeye Engine company, of Salem, for $3,000, alleging that the company should be held responsible for injuries he received while in its employ. While inexperienced, he says he was put to work on a steel drill which was without the usual and necessary shield. In oiling the drill he lost four fingers of his right hand.

PRESBYTERY ENDS A BUSY SESSION

Various Committees Report and
Dr. Barrows Delivers a
Fine Lecture.

LONG RUN CENTENNIAL

Delegate Appointed to Attend the Church Celebration—Dr. George
Dismissed to Allegheny Presbytery—Concluding Proceedings.

After the noon recess yesterday the Steubenville presbytery reconvened in the First Presbyterian church with prayer by the moderator, Rev. Edwin Hogil. Upon his request, Rev. S. C. George was given a letter of dismissal to the presbytery of Allegheny, as was Rev. W. W. Norton to the presbytery of St. Clairsville.

The committee on education made a report regarding R. C. Young, a student. The report was accepted. Bert H. Conley was examined as a student for the ministry and proved himself satisfactory and his name was ordered enrolled as a candidate. He was also recommended to the board of education for aid. For the expenses of the delegates to the general assembly, which convenes in New York city next month, $487.80 was ordered drawn from the treasury.

The examination of Licentiate L. J. Wallace was taken up and approved. Mr. Wallace will be ordained and installed in the Madison church on May 22. Rev. D. R. Breed accepted an invitation to preach the ordination sermon. Owing to the withdrawal of Rev. J. A. Platts as president of the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor union, Rev. T. C. Weir was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Rev. A. M. Reid was appointed a delegate to attend the centennial at Long's Run and the stated clerk was ordered to send a report of the centennial meeting to the general assembly. The Still Fork church extended the presbytery an invitation to hold the fall meeting in that church. The invitation was readily accepted.

The evening session was opened with a report of the temperance committee by Rev. C. L. V. McKee. The report with resolutions was accepted. The reports of the auditing committee and the committee on home missions were also accepted. The latter report showed that Pleasant Hill church had been the most progressive and East Liverpool at the end of the list. Rev. C. G. Jordan was called upon for an explanation in regard to the matter and stated that the church was guilty, but for very good reasons.

"During the past year," said Rev.

Mr. Jordan, "the church has given over $2,000 to other missions and could not give to home missions as abundantly as it wished. We will, however, come to the front this year by giving our full assessment."

The women's society of home missions also reported and the report was accepted. At the conclusion of these reports the business of the presbytery was practically at an end and the moderator recommended that the evening services be commenced.

The familiar hymn, "Stand Up Stand Up for Jesus," was engaged in heartily by the congregation, after which the choir, led by Prof. H. F. McLaughlin, sang a beautiful anthem entitled, "Hark, Hear the Voices." Miss Margaret Baxter sang a solo in connection with the anthem and was commended highly. Dr. John Henry Barrows, president of Oberlin college, was then introduced by Rev. C. G. Jordan and in a manner overflowing with eloquence Dr. Barrows delivered a masterly address on the subject "The World As Seen By a World Traveller."

Although the eminent lecturer and preacher made his address rather short he impressed the audience forcibly and his remarks were enjoyably received. Having been for years a traveler in the orient Dr. Barrows was well qualified to make his subject interesting.

He dwelt chiefly on China and other Asiatic countries. He told of the schools and colleges of China and the experience of Christian evangelists among the so-called heathen. "Evangelism in the orient," said Dr. Barrows, "has a very promising outlook. In a few years the inhabitants of China and Japan will be as Christianized as the people of the United States."

Dr. Barrows ended his most complete description of the orient by paying high tribute to the Presbyterians now at work in the heathen fields.

A soprano solo sung most beautifully by Miss Margaret Harrison followed by the benediction brought the services to a close.

The unfinished business was immediately taken up, and after hearing several reports and deciding to meet in Madison church in May a resolution was read and unanimously adopted, thanking the people of East Liverpool and the First church for its entertainment and hospitality and thanking Dr. Barrows for his masterly address.

EAST END UNIFORM DAY'S WORK

Much Desired by the Employees of the East Liverpool Railway Company.

The East End is the mecca for street railway men of the city, and this morning they were feeling rather good over the proposition of the Pittsburgh Railways company for an increase in the wages of its employees. The men some time ago asked the company for an increase, and the proposition was entertained. It is stated the men will receive more than they asked.

The men employed on the East Liverpool street railway hope the company will make a uniform day's work, as the men claim under the present arrangement of runs it is a hard matter for a majority of the employees to make $2 a day, the best runs being but 10 hours and 24 minutes. There are some runs making but eight and nine hours, and men who are being paid but 18 cents an hour say they can hardly make out on this sort of runs. Runs of this kind net the motorman or conductor about $1.60 per day.

NEW POLICE OFFICER

Appointment of Jay Fisher For the East End Received With Satisfaction.

The appointment of Jay Fisher to a position on the police force, to be located in the East End, has met with the entire satisfaction of a large number of residents of that section. Mr. Fisher has resided in the East End many years, and has always been a hard worker for the betterment of the condition of that part of the city.

Taken Off the Extension.

It was announced this morning that all workmen had been taken off the extension of the East Liverpool railway to the state line, and that these men are now working on the main line, making much needed improvements. Superintendent Reed could not announce when the work on the extension would commence.

SCHOOL TOPICS

Miss Naomi Shontz is absent from her school duties because of illness. Miss Elizabeth Stevenson was absent from school Monday by reason of illness.

Miss Mary Jackman is detained from her duties in the Central school by illness.

The many friends of Miss Pearl Finley, of the East End, will be pleased to know that she is slightly improved.

Miss Margaret McConnell, a teacher in the Sixth street school, was called to her home in Irondale by the illness of her mother.

Dr. John H. Barrows, president of Oberlin College, addressed the teachers' meeting yesterday afternoon at the Central school building. He took as his subject, "Samuel Adams and His Message to the Nineteenth Century."

The subject of organizing an alumni association among the graduates of the East Liverpool high school has long been under consideration and a number of the members of the class of 1901, during the past winter, have been thinking seriously of taking the initiative in the matter. But whether it be as a result of any step taken by that class or not could not be learned. At any rate, Supt. Rayman has announced that there will be a meeting of all the graduates of the high school at 7 o'clock this evening, in the high school room. The meeting is called for the purpose of considering the organization of an alumni association. All graduates are requested to be present.

REEVES IS RELEASED.

Gov. Gen. Wood Issued an Order Pardoning Cuban Postal Embezzler.

BECAUSE HE TURNED INFORMER

During the Trial, It Was Denied There Was Any Agreement With Him—Hanna to Take Steps to Prove Innocence of Rathbone.

Havana, April 23.—Governor General Wood issued an order yesterday pardoning W. H. Reeves, who was recently sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $35,516 for complicity in the Cuban postal frauds. Reeves was liberated at once.

General Wood says he pardoned Reeves because he was a witness for the state. The order pardoning him did not come as a surprise, for it has been generally understood, ever since Estes G. Rathbone was first accused of connection with the postal frauds, that Reeves had been promised immunity by the military government. This had been denied, as well as the fact that the government had been using Reeves as a witness for the defense.

The matter was referred to by counsel for Rathbone in summing up their client's case. Rathbone's lawyers declared that this promise of immunity had influenced Reeves to make statements against Rathbone.

Washington, April 23.—Senator Hanna says he will take steps to show the world that E. G. Rathbone is an innocent man. He says he has documentary evidence to prove that the military governor swayed the court that convicted the director general of posts. James R. Campbell, ex-governor of Ohio, a cousin of Rathbone's, will probably be the counsel in chief who will fight to re-establish Rathbone's good name.

"The conviction of Rathbone was secured mainly on the testimony of Reeves, a perjured witness," said a man close to the senator. "Senator Hanna has a great mass of papers bearing on the case, and as soon as possible he will go over them with an attorney and sift out the important from the unimportant in order to have something to work with before the courts. Rathbone will remain in Havana, of course, as his bail will not allow him to leave the island. The senator's duties will not permit him to be present at the trial of the proceedings when they are heard, but he will employ the best legal talent obtainable and will stand by Rathbone until the bitter end."

Wintering in Colorado And Utah.

The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states.

Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. For free illustrated booklet write S. K. Hooper, R. P. & T. A., Denver, Col.

By order of Congressional Committee,
J. P. FAWCETT,
C. B. WICK, Committee,
E. A. KING,

The new council has entered upon its duties and the city is looking to it for an energetic and business-like policy. The same care, thoughtfulness and diligence that a man exercises in his own business should be exercised in looking after the city's affairs. It is not enough for a council to be conservative; it must be progressive also. East Liverpool is growing at a rate few eastern Ohio cities can equal. Its lawmakers need therefore to legislate, not only for a city of the present size, but with the fact in mind that the requirements of a much larger city are soon to be met and faced. The present condition of the city's finances is such that caution and prudence in expenditures are imperative. Difficult problems confront the present council; they cannot be avoided, but must be met and solved. The city is looking for an able and business-like administration, and will hold each member of council responsible for his effort or lack of effort to give it. We are aware of the fact that the councilman's lot is not a happy one. Whether he does much or little for his constituents and for the city, somebody is bound to grumble. But the man who cannot stand censure as well as praise when he is putting forth honest effort in a good cause ought never to sit in the city's council. The business of the city is rapidly growing larger and must inevitably demand more and more of thought and attention from those who are entrusted with it. Those who have not the time or the inclination to give freely of both ought never to seek councilmanic honors. We trust the gentlemen who have taken the oath of office will not overlook this fact, but will be diligent, faithful and watchful of the best interests of the whole city. Nobody expects impossibilities of the council, but everybody expects its members to work and do their level best.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Eliza F. Blythe.

Mrs. Eliza F. Blythe, aged 79 years, died at the home of her nephew, Heber H. Blythe, on College street, last evening, of old age. The funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Blythe was the daughter of the late Sanford Hill, and had been a resident of this city for about 70 years. During the past winter she had made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Blythe, but before that she resided on Broadway. Mrs. Blythe was the last of the charter members of the First Presbyterian church of this city. She was born December 20, 1822.

AT THE THEATER

Quite a large house witnessed the presentation of "The Electrician" at the Grand last evening. The production was somewhat different from any other seen in this city in recent years, and it was well received.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Ohio—Showers and cooler today. Tomorrow fair; brisk to high south west to west winds along the lake.

Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia—Showers and not so warm today. Tomorrow fair and cooler; brisk to high south winds, becoming west.

The gentlemen who have taken the oath of office will not overlook this fact, but will be diligent, faithful and watchful of the best interests of the whole city. Nobody expects impossibilities of the council, but everybody expects its members to work and do their level best.

Frederick S. Hartzel, secretary of the Ohio auxiliary of the McKinley National Memorial association, has been transferred from Canton to the national secretary's office in Cleveland, where he will spend the major portion of his time in active charge of the executive work. He gives a most hopeful account of the growth of the memorial fund, stating that every mail brings donations from the great centers and also from remote rural regions. The committee will relax none of its efforts until $670,000 has been contributed. As a tribute to the late president and proof of the nation's esteem, it is stated that the McKinley memorial fund is the largest sum ever raised by contribution from the American people for such a purpose. The money has come from the people; the amount given by the wealthy classes is very small in comparison. No appropriation of congress or of the general assembly of Ohio will be asked to augment the people's contribution.

Ohio will soon have another campaign on its hands. The Republicans are in excellent fighting trim and prepared to win next fall. Their state central committee meets in Columbus today to fix the time and place for the meeting of this year's convention. It is already determined to hold the convention the last of May or first of June, and Columbus will probably secure the honor without opposition. Governor Nash will be made temporary chairman and Senator Foraker permanent chairman. The ticket will be a short one and will consist of candidates for secretary of state, supreme judge and member board of public works. A nomination will also be made for dairy and food commissioner provided the bill to extend the term of Mr. Blackburn fails to become a law.

One of the most popular suggestions made to the new council is the recommendation of City Engineer Kelly that signs designating the names of the streets be placed at every street corner. Council cannot overlook this suggestion without ignoring a plain requirement of the law as well as the wishes of the people.

It is suggested that J. P. Morgan might organize a syndicate to govern the South American republics which are addicted to the revolutionary habit. Then he would have business enough to last him the rest of his life.

It is said Wellsville proposes to distinguish herself by proving she has over 9,000 population. Whatever Wellsville may lack in population, there is no discounting the fact that she is "long" on ambition.

Not satisfied with a trust that has placed beef out of sight, the packing barons of Chicago are now credited with an intention to corner the supply of poultry and eggs. Watch your chicken coop!

Dakota is in the midst of a fierce blizzard, while Ohio and the south are complaining of unseasonable heat. The American climate is certainly varied and comprehensive.

New York, April 23.—Yesterday's stock market had the appearance of being tired, in the language of the brokers. A gallant rally was made against the depression and the sympathetic influence of rather aggressive strength developed in some of the eastern railroad stocks had the effect of checking the selling in the western field, so that the losses were at one time pretty generally recovered. But the action of Reading strongly indicated a culmination of the upward movement in that stock and the taking of speculative profits and an afternoon rally in the wheat market reawakened the anxiety felt for the winter wheat crop. The western railroad stocks fell away to the lowest of the day and the gains which had been established elsewhere among important railroad stocks melted away. The market closed active and weak and generally at the lowest. A violent break in sugar to 122½, after selling up to 127½, was a contributing cause to the late weakness and was attributed to the growing apprehension that the differential duty on sugar will be removed or the Cuban reciprocity bill will fail. There were the usual violent and erratic movements in a number of specialties which have come to be a regular feature of the stock market. The upward flight of Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis was due to the reports subsequently denied, that the stock would be changed for Louisville and Nashville.

The early recovery in the market was stimulated by reports of showers in the winter wheat belt, but the grain carrying roads showed a nervous tone throughout, and the real sustaining influence in the market was the buying of the coalers, both hard and soft, and the Morgan railroads. The evidence of realizing in Reading left the market vulnerable again to the influence of a rally in the wheat market, although that was said to be partly due to the heavy decrease during the week in the visible supply of wheat.

A reassuring effect was produced by the indifference expressed by the principals in the Northern Securities company to the filing of the suit in the supreme court against the consolidated ownership of the properties is safe in any event, since only that method of holding them is aimed at by the suit.

Speculative bonds were weak and the market generally was irregular. Total sales, par value, $3,345,000.

SOUTH SIDE

FIXING FOR PICNICS

Panhandle Railroad Improving Its Tracks in Vicinity of Rock Springs.

The Panhandle Railroad company is preparing its tracks at Chester for the picnic season at Rock Springs park, which gives promise of being larger this season than ever before. During the past few days the Steubenville work train has been engaged in widening the paths on either side of the trestle near the park, and when necessary passengers can get from the excursion trains and walk to the park without first having to walk back over the trestle. The same plan will be followed when the trains are being loaded for the return trips.

GRAND CROWD EXPECTED

At the Championship Basket Ball Game to Be Played Tonight.

Extensive preparations are being made today for the championship basket ball game which is to be played this evening between the D. C. & A. C. of Pittsburgh, and the Y. M. C. I. of Steubenville, for the championship of eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania. The regulation baskets were placed this morning, one being at the south end and one at the north end of the pavilion.

A number of benches have been placed around the hall off the accommodation of the large crowd that is anticipated.

PARK IMPROVEMENTS

Roller Coaster and Merry-Go-Round Being Prepared for Business.

For the past few days a number of men have been kept at work on the roller coaster at Rock Springs park, fixing up the tracks and oiling the machinery. The cars have been removed from their place of storage and have also been put into good shape. They will be put into use this evening, at which time the coaster will be opened for the summer season.

Carpenters are now at work on the addition to the floor of the merry-go-round, which is to be remodeled for the summer. It will be opened some time next week.

Drilling for Oil.
Drilling for oil has commenced on the Frank farm at Hookstown. The hole is now 200 feet deep and oil is expected to be struck during the last of the week.

An Enjoyable Dance.
A very enjoyable dance was given last evening at Rock Springs park by Decorators' local No. 60, S. B. of O. P. The music for the occasion was furnished by Nowling's orchestra. A very large crowd attended.

CHESTER NOTES.

A. C. McKnight, of Akron, was in Chester today on business.

The foundation work was started this morning on three new houses in Lawrenceville. Much building is going on in that suburb.

Frank Hart had his hand mashed at the tin mill yesterday to such an extent that he will be laid up for some time. No bones were broken.

Kelsey Hayward, of Kendall, was operated on yesterday for appendicitis. Several very prominent physicians of Hancock county were present.

The state oleomargarine inspector, of Parkersburg, was in Chester this morning, visiting the different grocery stores. He had no complaints to make about Chester dealers.

PITIABLE CONDITION

OF A PRISONER IN THE CITY JAIL.

Smith's Ferry Man Suffering With Delirium Tremens Muttering And Weeps.

In a most pitiable condition lies John Moore, of Smith's Ferry, in the city jail. Suffering with delirium tremens he writhes and starts upon his couch while in an almost inaudible voice he talks imploringly to his absent wife and six children. In his wanderings he imagines that they are in his presence and tries, while tears are flowing from his eyes, to convince them that is truly repentant of his actions.

The unfortunate creature was locked up last night by Officer Woods and when arrested was helplessly drunk. He is a tin worker and is employed in the Chester mills. Chief Thompson is giving him medical aid, but he will not be in condition for a hearing before the mayor for several days.

CROWDS WILL COME

From Steubenville And Down the River to Witness Tonight's Basket Ball Contest.

Steubenville proposes to send a large delegation to the basket ball game at Rock Springs park tonight, it being the last contest of the season between the Steubenville Y. M. C. I. and the D. C. & A. C. Each has won one game from the other. So confident is Steubenville of winning that Manager Farren offers to bet $100 on Steubenville, according to a paper of that city.

Editor Brown, of New Cumberland, has ordered 50 reserve seats and all the down river section appears stirred up over the game.

SENATORS FAVOR RE-DISTRICTING

Hanna and Foraker Want Columbus and Dayton Districts Changed.

DICK IS OUT OF THE RACE

For the Governorship According to Report—New Municipal Code Bill to Be Drafted—Big Industrial Project Falls Through.

Columbus, April 23.—(Special)—Senator Chamberlin, of Elyria, and Representative Worthington, of Belmont, have returned from Washington where they conferred with the leaders. Senator Chamberlin says that Senator Hanna and Foraker and Congressmen Dick and Grosvenor favor the changing of the Columbus and Dayton districts, which would give the Republicans seventeen Congressmen.

Frank Hart had his hand mashed at the tin mill yesterday to such an extent that he will be laid up for some time. No bones were broken.

Kelsey Hayward, of Kendall, was operated on yesterday for appendicitis. Several very prominent physicians of Hancock county were present.

The state oleomargarine inspector, of Parkersburg, was in Chester this morning, visiting the different grocery stores. He had no complaints to make about Chester dealers.

The Comings bill authorizing the appointment of a commission to draft a new municipal code bill has been recommended for passage. Representative Price, of Athens, introduced a substitute for the uniform system of public accounting bill. The new measure is like the original, except that it gives the auditor of state power to appoint three inspectors at salaries of $2,000 each, and a clerk at a salary of $1,500, and such other help as may be necessary.

It is believed that John F. Ward, of Youngstown, is slated for the factory and workshop inspectorship of the district embracing Mahoning county and counties north, to succeed Deputy Inspector Warren Hall, of Warren. Chief Inspector Morgan has assurance that Columbus will be selected as the meeting place for next year's convention of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel and Tin Workers. Eastern Ohio delegates favor Columbus.

The project of which John R. Morgan, of Alliance, was the prime mover, to locate a large engineering plant in this city, has fallen through on account of the action of the steel trust in forcing up the prices of material. A company was incorporated with $75,000 capital to push the enterprise, but it has been announced that the deal is off entirely. Morgan was superintendent of the big Morgan engineering works at Alliance for years. He is a brother of Colonel Morgan, of the staff of Governor Nash, and a son of the late Colonel Morgan, of Alliance.

The Coxey Silica Company, organized under the laws of New Jersey, has been admitted to Ohio and will engage in business at Mt. Vernon. "General" Coxey, of commonwealth fame, owns most of the stock of the concern.

A MOVING SEASON

Many Farmers About Calcutta. A Change Locations This Spring.

A gentleman from Calcutta wandered into this city yesterday, and it seemed that he knew of more changes of the location of farmers in that locality than any other person who has been in the city for a month. After a News Review reporter had been talking to him for a short time the gentleman said:

"Well, I suppose you want some news. Would you believe it that more farms have changed hands during the past fortnight than ever before in a like time? John Dailey, of Gardendale, is going to move on the Howard Davis farm at Sprucevale, and John Reed has moved from the John Steel farm to the Jack Thompson farm. John Farmer has given up the Jack Thompson farm and is now located on the Jim Rauch place, near Five Points. Samuel Reed has moved from the country to Calcutta, and I was told today that William Shapley was going to change from the Tatgenhorst farm to that vacated by Sam Reed."

PROBATE MATTERS

Will Filed And Administrators Appointed By Judge Boone.

Lisbon, April 23.—(Special)—The will of the late Moses B. Joseph, of Wellsville, was filed for probate yesterday.

L. P. Metzger, of Salem, has been appointed administrator of Joseph Allmon, late of Perry township. Bond $800. Albert Hayes, R. B. Heaton and O. J. Asty are appraisers.

Mary E. Getz, formerly Mary E. Garwood, having resigned as administratrix of the estate of William T. S. Garwood, late of Perry township, A. W. Taylor has been appointed administratrix. Bond $2,100.

PROVIDENTIAL RAIN FELL.

Saves Wisconsin Crops—Deaths From Tornadoes In That State. Snowfall In Northwest.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 23.—Showers throughout Wisconsin late yesterday brought an end to the hot weather which threatened for a time to ruin the crops in many parts of the state.

Last night's specials from various parts of the state tell of much damage done by the high winds.

At Cumberland, Wis., the heavy rains put out a forest fire which threatened to do great damage. At New Richmond, Arthur Roetger, aged 14 years, was struck by lightning while eating lunch in a school house and instantly killed.

At Hebron a tornado yesterday afternoon blew down two barns, killing Gillett Reed, a farmer, and his head of cattle.

At Johnson's Creek, Wis., a tornado destroyed a barn, seriously injuring Mary Fertisch, 15 years old, and doing other damage.

Jamestown, N. D., April 23.—The severest April snow storm ever known in this section of the state began early yesterday and steadily increased in fury. Over a foot of snow fell during the day. Railroad traffic was at a standstill, with the exception of through passenger trains on the Northern Pacific.

Deadwood, S. D., April 23.—Yesterday two feet and a half of snow had fallen here since Monday noon and it was still falling. A high wind accompanied the storm and all trains were delayed. The storm was general over the hills.

Lincoln, Neb., April 23.—There was a drop in the temperature yesterday from the high point of Monday of from 40 to 50 degrees throughout the state. Following a slight fall of rain, the wind changed from the south to the northwest, and last night a snow storm was prevailing in Central Nebraska, with indications of a blizzard. Railroad reports from the extreme northwestern part of Nebraska and the Black Hills, told of a heavy fall of snow, 15 inches at Custer and nearly two feet at Spearfish.

Crowder Exonerates British.

Washington, April 23.—The president received last night the complete report of Colonel Enoch Crowder, U. S. A., who was sent to Port Chalmette, La., to investigate the British camp established there. The report completely exonerates the British officials of any violation of the neutrality laws.

Ballplayer Joss Surrendered.

Toledo, O., April 23.—Adjie Joss, the baseball pitcher connected with the Cleveland American league team who was recently indicted by the grand jury on the charge of receiving money under false pretenses, gave himself up yesterday and was placed under $500 bond. Joss jumped a Toledo contract and went to Cleveland.

Lack of Originality.

Says a Philadelphia physician: "The only lack of originality in the human mind vexes me. Even the insane are not original in their delusions and manias, but they can be divided into classes, and each class has its one little uniform and unvarying set of aberrations. The insane cannot be other than imitative and commonplace."

WELLSVILLE

FELL AND DROWNED

Colored Fireman Lost From A River Steamer.

The Accident Occurred Near Congo And the Body Was Not Recovered.

A colored fireman of the towboat Gleaner, which passed through Wellsville at 5:30 last evening, fell off the boat when opposite the east end of Congo, having fainted, and was drowned. A few of the attaches of the boat who were standing nearby saw him fall, but did not see him after he went under the water.

The tow boat was immediately stopped and two skiffs were sent out to look for the man, but no trace of him could be found. The boat waited for about 10 minutes and then resumed its journey towards Pittsburg. The body of the dead man has not yet been found.

STEAM FERRY BOAT

Due in Wellsville This Week—An Excursion to Be Given.

The new steam ferry boat, owned by Samuel D. Goucher, of New Cumberland, which is to ply between Wellsville and Congo, is due to arrive tomorrow from Pittsburg. Captain Goucher is expected to come with it.

It has been stated upon good authority that an opening excursion will be held some time this week, to which all of the Wellsville city council and the Hancock county circuit court officials have been invited.

It is not known just when the boat will be ready for business, but it will probably be as soon as satisfactory arrangements have been made between Mr. Goucher and Watson Johnson, who owns the Congo landing place and will not allow Goucher to land his boat there.

George D. Ingram, of Congo, who was the attorney for Johnson in the recent fight for a franchise against Goucher to operate the ferry, states that Goucher will never be able to run the ferry between the two towns, as Johnson means to fight the matter to a finish, and already holds the trump card.

Back from a Wreck.

The relief train which was sent out from Wellsville some time last week to assist in clearing away the debris of a burned bridge at Anbury, O., on the C. A. & C. division of the Pennsylvania lines, returned here last evening. It has been away for nearly one week.

Made Three Arrests.

Officers Thorn and Pittenger arrested three men yesterday, one charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct and two with vagrancy. All will appear before the mayor today for the customary $1 and costs.

SOLONS WANT TO QUIT

Interesting Budget of Gossip About Measures of Public Concern Picked Up in the Legislative Halls at Columbus.

Columbus, O., April 23.—[Special.]—Boards of trade and chambers of commerce throughout the state, which are not disposed as a rule to exercise a lively interest in matters of legislation, and yet wake up at times and work with a will, are now deeply concerned over a bill which Mr. Price of Athens has drafted, and which is a substitute for two bills introduced earlier in the year traveling along the same line.

The new bill is for the creation of a Bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices and for the establishment of a uniform system of public accounting, auditing and reporting, under the supervision of the state auditor. Now, as everybody knows, there is nothing of that character, and we have almost as many different systems as we have different towns and counties, all of which causes State Auditor Guibert much worry and fills him with a desire to see it changed. The bill is the result of work upon the part of Allen Ripley Foote of New York, a somewhat noted and particularly energetic economist of New York and elsewhere, for Foote is a migrating sort of man, who goes everywhere seeking those to whom he can do good, and from whom good can come. As presented to the legislature, it has been much changed from the original draft, in order to incorporate the idea of Mr. Price and other statesmen.

It provides for the establishment in the department of the auditor of state of a bureau to be known as the bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices. The chief drawer to this bureau is to be auditor himself, and under him are to be three deputies of his own appointment, each of whom is to receive a salary of $2,000 per year, together with hotel, travelling expenses, etc. There will also be a home clerk, to remain in the auditor's office, at a salary of $1,500. The auditor, with the assistance of this help, is to formulate a system of accounting and reporting, which shall be uniform for every public office and every account of the same class, and which shall exhibit true accounts and detailed statements of funds collected and expended for account of the public for any purpose and by all public officers, such accounts to show the receipt, use and disposition of all public property, and the income, if any, derived therefrom. It further is to show all sources of public income, the amounts due and received from each source, all receipts, vouchers and other documents kept, or that may be required to be kept, necessary to isolate and prove the validity of every transaction and all statements and reports made, or required to be made, for the internal administration of the different public offices. Moreover it is to take in all reports published for the information of the people in order that they may keep a close tab on the financial doings of their public servants.

There is more to the bill. A separate account is to be kept for every appropriation of fund made by a taxing body, and for every public service industry. Comparative statements are to be kept from year to year in order that it may be shown whether the people's money is being judiciously and carefully expended.

After the system has been thoroughly formulated and installed the inspectors of the auditor are to make annual trips about the state to look into the books of the different officials, check up accounts, etc., and see that all things are being conducted in a decent and orderly manner, and woe betide the official who is found derelict in his duty if the inspector be a man of courage and familiar with his duty.

Auditor Guibert is thoroughly and conscientiously impressed with the wisdom of the measure and his sincerity of desire has extended to the commercial organizations of the state, or many of them at least, who desire to share with him the work of putting it through.

The bill, in a way, supplements a measure already enacted into a law, providing for the annual inspection of state institutions, and it is also analogous to a pending bill creating a state banking department, which shall have under its control all state banks, vis.

It was thought that with the passage of the law providing for municipal local option the temperance legislation of this session was practically at an end, and that there were none so bold as to endeavor to force through another bill. Yet it now appears that was a mistake. Price of Athens, who during his speakership fight was rather tauntingly referred to as the friend of the liquor interests, has announced his determination to press to a passage this week his measure of early session introduction increasing the Dow tax from $350 to $500. Now Mr. Price's reasons for this are of a conflicting nature. He believes the measure is just, and for that his own word is to be had. But another object is to show that he is in no wise controlled by the liquor element, and to place those men who accused him of being upon record.

"They stood out and shouted for temperance legislation at the start. They declared I was against it. They made an issue of a question which had no place in the speakership fight. Now let us see where they stand. They said I was against any legislation contrary to the liquor interests. Yet I have introduced this bill and will vote for it. Will they do likewise? If so I think it will be passed." The bill is now in the hands of the committee to which it was referred some weeks ago. Mr. Price's plan is to bring it out on the open floor of the house, where it may be fought and a vote taken upon it.

There is little likelihood of the other temperance measure, the one providing for local option by wards, ever coming from the temperance committee's hands. It would not do to ask for too much in a single session.

The municipal code bill, just as was said, and as everybody believed, has gone by the boards for two years at least, but, Phoenix like, it will bob up again then for consideration. The postponement of the measure for so long a time was a sad blow to Mr. Comings of Lorain, who championed it.

Mr. Myers of Montgomery has introduced a bill aimed directly at an American institution—the American jury. What court room is there in the country that does not have its regular jurors, its old stand-bys, who serve from term to term and year to year, and are never lacking in good natured readiness to go on duty. Yet Mr. Myers has the temerity to attack them, to take away their livelihood and their pleasure. He has prepared and presented a bill making it a misdemeanor to any way solicit service on a jury, even to the extent of waiting around a court room in an expectant mood.

The seeds of discontent are being sown and members are counting the days until they can get away. For the first three months of a session during the cold and more disagreeable weather a legislature is a patient body, going along with no particular thought of the morrow, and attending to each day's work as it comes along. The fourth month—and that ends with this week—it is harder to be patient. Warmer weather comes and the days are pleasanter. There is a longing to get out in the open, to get home and take up the regular routine of work. After the fourth month the wait is simply tantalizing and every day is a burden. Members fret in their seats and stew at the delay. They grow impatient, and there is no longer attractiveness in legislative halls. Next week it will reach that stage. Then work will go through with a rush, things will be brushed out of the way, and on a week from next Monday the final adjournment will undoubtedly come, and good-bys be spoken. But there is much to do before then, and several matters of importance need settlement. The appropriation bills must all be passed and money provided for state institutions and departments; several of the taxation measures affecting corporations are yet in the hands of the senate or the house, and must be taken out to make the administration's tax plan complete. The primary election law is yet unpassed, although one of the most important of the session.

Manila, April 23.—Two engagements have been fought between the American troops and the Moros of the island of Mindanao during the 24 hours preceding yesterday. Moore, of the Twenty-seventh infantry, while out with a small party hunting for water, was fired upon at long range.

Lieutenant Frank D. Baldwin, with a battalion of troops and a mountain gun, went to the assistance of Moore's party and drove off the Moros, who lost seven men. The firing was at 1,100 yards' range.

The Moro villages were flying red flags, meaning that they intended to fight to the uttermost.

Later Sultan Pualo and a force of natives attempted to reoccupy the ground gained by the Americans, but the Moros were dispersed.

Washington, April 23.—The war department has instructed General Chaffee to delay the departure of the proposed expedition into Mindanao until after the receipt of further directions from Washington. The president desires to exhaust all other means of effecting the capture of the Moros who murdered American soldiers before dispatching an armed expedition for that purpose. Meanwhile, however, that portion of General Davis' command which was selected for the journey will still be held in readiness, and all preparations up to the point of actual departure will be made.

Huntingdon, Pa., April 23.—After 11 months of hard work by the local authorities, augmented by foreign detective talent, informations were made last night against three alleged firebugs who have been operating here. Twenty-two fires, mostly barns, including much live stock, were destroyed, as well as the opera house and many other business places. A reward of $1,000 was ineffectually offered by the city council.

Friday night another barn, with two horses, was burned, and on information of Max Swartz, the owner, Landis Steele, son of Prothonotary Steel and manager of the Reformatory, and Harry Miller, of this place, were arrested last night and placed in jail. A warrant is also out for Thomas Waite, son of ex-District Attorney Waite. A number of others suspected will be arrested.

York, Pa., April 23.—The large bank barn of C. C. Wolf, eight miles southeast of York, was destroyed by an incendiary fire last night. Forty head of fat beef cattle and ten horses and mules perished in the flames.

The house has refused to concur, and therefore killed Senator Hosea's bill permitting both life and accident insurance companies to sell health policies. Now there wasn't any good reason for the house doing this except that it felt in a bad mood and was tired out and nobody defended the measure. The Democrats refused to vote at all; there were not Republicans enough present to make a quorum, and the bill fell by the wayside.

The bill by Senator Harding reorganizing the National Guard and making it in the adoption of tactics more nearly comply with the United States army has passed both branches of the legislature, and is now a law.

THE POPE THANKFUL

To the Hand Which Continues to Sustain Him, In Fulfilling His Duties.

STRONGER THAN 5 YEARS AGO,

Bourke Cockran Says He Found Him—Expressed His Great Friendliness For America—Keen Knowledge of Our Affairs.

London, April 23.—W. Bourke Cockran, of New York, who sails for the United States today, described to a representative of the Associated Press yesterday his recent audience with the pope. Mr. Cockran said:

"It was five years since I had seen his holiness, and I rather dreaded this visit lest I might see some of the cruel inroads of age. To my astonishment I found the pope to be stronger, mentally and physically, than when I first saw him. The accuracy of his memory, the sweetness of his voice and the brightness of those wonderful eyes seem to have been accentuated rather than diminished by the intervening five years.

"His holiness expressed, as he always does, his great friendliness for America and exhibited a keen knowledge of American affairs. Nothing relating to the Philippine islands or to politics was mentioned; our conversation was almost exclusively upon ecclesiastical matters. He expressed deep thankfulness to The Hand which continued to sustain him in fulfilling his great duties, and how, as the years passed, his realization of responsibility increased. 'Yet,' he added, 'I feel very deeply that all the decrees I may make are as equally binding upon myself as upon the humblest member of the church.'

Secretaries Say They Are Out of Debt—Good News For General Assembly.

Pittsburg, April 23.—The Presbyterians general assembly will hear good news from the different boards of the church. A local paper made inquiries as to their financial condition. The result was published yesterday, in part as follows:

The Rev. Dr. Elijah R. Craven, secretary of the board of Philadelphia, in Philadelphia, says in part:

"It gives me pleasure to state that the missionary department closed the year not only out of debt, but with a good working balance."

The Rev. Dr. Erskine E. White, of New York, secretary of the board of church erection, writes: "In answer to your inquiry, I must say that this board will close the year without debt, although the demands upon it have been the largest in its history."

The Rev. Dr. Charles L. Thompson of New York, whose board received $1,000,000 last year, writes: "We are glad to report that the home board has closed the fiscal year with a balance in the treasury of almost $5,000."

Says He Loves America—Rejoices at Religious Freedom—Praises Their Work.

Rome, April 23.—Answering the solicitations of the American episcopate, the pope has written to Cardinal Gibbons and all the Catholic bishops expressing his gratitude for their good wishes. In the letter he says: "I strongly love America and rejoice in her development, and the progress of Catholicism and religious freedom. I pray that you will fight all errors."

Leo praises the work of the bishops, especially in augmenting the schools and instituting missions for the diffusion of the faith. He concludes with his apostolic benediction.

WOULD GIVE MILES MORE POWER.

Washington, April 23.—Senator Hawley, chairman of the senate committee on military affairs, introduced a bill yesterday to increase the efficiency of the army. The bill is radically different from that prepared by Secretary Root, which has been vigorously opposed by General Miles.

It eliminates the general staff system which Secretary Root favors and places upon General Miles the duties which the secretary of war would depute to the chief of staff. Under Senator Hawley's bill General Miles would become the commander of the United States army in fact as well as in name.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman, writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

CUBAN BILL CAUCUS.

Republican Senators Meet and Decide to Formulate a Reciprocity Measure.

CONFIDENT THEY CAN PASS IT.

Democrats Held Informal Consultations—Considered Principally Teller's Resolution For Inquiry as to Holdings of Present Stock of Sugar.

Washington, April 23.—The question of reciprocity with Cuba formed the subject of an important preliminary conference on the part of a majority of the Republican senators yesterday. This conference was held in the room of the senate committee on finance during the afternoon sitting of the senate and was extended for some time after the adjournment. In the main the senators invited to participate were those friendly to reciprocity legislation, but some of the opposition Republican members were present. In the absence of Senator Allison, Senator Hale presided. The result of the meeting may be summed up as follows:

There will be an early meeting of the senate committee on relations with Cuba to take up the question on the basis of the house bill, which is now before the committee; the Republican members of the committee will act together in formulating a sub for the house bill, and none of them are to co-operate with the Democratic members of the committee; the bill thus agreed upon by the Republican members to be submitted to a Republican caucus of the senate and made a party measure.

With the exception of Senator Spitzer, all the Republican members of the Cuban committee attended yesterday's meeting, and, it is understood, tacitly or openly gave their adherence to the program. The leaders of the movement express confidence that it will be possible to report a bill out of the committee, and say their confidence also extends to the point of the passage of the bill by the senate.

The Democratic senators also were more or less engaged yesterday with the sugar question, but their conferences were all held on the floor of the senate and in the Democratic cloak rooms, and none of them were so formal or so well attended as the Republican conference. The Democratic consultations generally had reference to Senator Teller's resolution providing for an inquiry as to the holdings of the present stock of sugar, and there was at one time a practical assurance that sufficient votes couldn't be secured to pass the resolution. It would seem probable, however, that the result of the Republican conference may change the situation in that respect.

DENOUNCED PHILIPPINE BILL.

Rawlins Declared It Would Establish a Foul Oligarchy.

Washington, April 23.—Formal discussion of the bill temporarily to provide a government for the Philippine islands was begun in the senate yesterday, by a vote of 75 to 72, rejected claims attached to the omnibus claims bills by the senate aggregating $1,800,000, and on the heels of that action non-concurred in the whole senate amendment (the various items having been ruled to constitute a single amendment) and sent the bill to conference.

The military academy appropriation bill was passed yesterday after the limit of cost of the improvements at West Point had been reduced from six and a half to five and one-half millions and the amount of the appropriation in the bill from three to two millions.

The London stock exchange bill was called up, but was not disposed of.

Power Company Meeting—A meeting of the stockholders of the United Power company was to have been held at the office of the company today, but has been deferred until later in the week. It has been announced that matters of the utmost importance are to be considered at this meeting.

A Frightened Team—A piece of flying paper scared a team of horses attached to C. H. Tatgenhorst's milk wagon on Fourth street near Jackson at noon today. They ran rapidly to Washington street and thence to Fifth street. The horses were stopped before any damage was done.

Awarded a Judgment—Squire McNamee awarded Mrs. Eliza Kenney a judgment and a writ of restitution against Willis Nichols this morning. Nichols has been renting a house on Third street belonging to Mrs. Kenney and not only refused to pay the rent, but refused to vacate, hence the action of the court.

for the efficient manner in which he conducted his part of council's work during the past year, and to the retiring president of council, O. D. Nice, a large bunch of tanks was thrown for the impartial manner rulings have been made during the past year.

Mr. Hanley said: "I thank you all for this esteemed favor, and I am only sorry that I cannot remain with you longer."

President Nice said nothing, as he was too modest to express his feelings.

Votes of thanks were tendered City Solicitor W. K. Gaston, Engineer Kelly and also to the representatives of the press, who have attended the meetings of council with more regularity than the members of council themselves.

THE NEW COUNCIL.

CALLED TO ORDER

The new council was then called to order by Mayor William Davidson, the retiring president taking a seat among the others. It took but a short time for the organization to be completed, this requiring less than half an hour.

The new members sworn in were Johnson, Nice, Peach, McConnell and Marshall. The oath was administered by Mayor Davidson, who called the new council to order. The election of O. D. Nice to the presidency was practically a matter of form, as this had been decided upon at the caucus which was held before the regular meeting of council had been called to order.

As the gentleman was walking to his chair there was loud and prolonged applause, and in response Mr. Nice said:

"I thank you very much for this honor, gentlemen, and it will be my endeavor to give impartial decision in all matters that will be considered by this body in the future, as I have in the past." Again there was prolonged applause.

The election of a vice president resulted in the selection of John Horwell, while Willis Davidson was elected to the position of city clerk to fill the vacancy of the retiring clerk, James N. Hanley.

THE MAYOR'S MESSAGE

ON STONE PILE SCHEME

Then came the climax of the evening when mention was made of the "municipal stone pile," which the mayor has been agitating so long and which is sure to be a good thing. It was stated that so many worthless characters were arrested in this city, and as a trip to the works was expensive and not much good accomplished in the end, the mayor desired to place such characters at work on a stone pile, or to make them work at the old cemetery improving that property. Particular mention was made by the mayor in his message that if the request was granted it would in no way conflict with organized labor or any other monoratic trade.

The message was received, and it will be given immediate attention by the new council, as it is considered an excellent idea.

The introduction of an ordinance to increase the salary of the city solicitor to $1,000 a year proved to be the best act of the evening, as there was no end of talk on this matter, first started by Councilman Peach, who desired to know if the finances of the city were in such bad shape, how this increase could be made. "I want to know if this is legal," said Mr. Peach, "and have we got the money to pay the increase? If this matter had been sprung before the election it would have been different. Have we got the money?"

SOLICITOR'S SALARY

RAISED TO $1,000

Solicitor McGarry was asked for an opinion and said: "It seems that I am to act as judge and jury in this case and will say that I am willing to abide by the decision of council. Six years ago the council placed the salary of the solicitor at $1,300, but this lasted but one year, owing to the finances being low. When I was called to this office four years ago the matter of increasing the salary of this office was considered and nothing was done."

The councilman from the Fifth ward made a few remarks to council regarding his views on the subject and stated that the city solicitor worked for the election to this office for $50 a month, and that he did not think it was proper to increase it just at this time. He also told the solicitor what his duties were, which was the signal for Mr. McGarry to remark that he was there to look after the interests of the city and also the acts of council.

That was all that was said and the ordinance was passed, all members voting in favor of it with the exception of Marshall and Peach.

A petition signed by numerous shipper of the city was presented to council asking that the wharf be paved. The paper was referred to the wharf and street committees.
